Donegal has good showing in Lancaster science fair

Although Donegal School District did not have a grand champion at last week-end's county-wide science fair, they did dominate all categories in the senior division with 9 winners. They also had one winner in the junior high division.

Donegal swept all three places in both the earth science and the physics categories.

First place winner in the earth and environmental science category was Phil Spickler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spickler.

Doug Kline won second place in the same category. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, 567 N. Anne St., Mount Joy. Third place went to Lisa Hoffman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Hoffman, 528 W. Main St., Mount Joy.

Dennis Leto, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Peter Leto, 25 Pajill Drive, Marietta, won first place in physics.

Second place went to Sherri Kinsey, the daughter of Mrs. Betty Kinsey, 557 N. Angle St., Mount Joy.

Third place went to William Gutshall, son of Mervin E. Gutshall, RD1, Marietta.

Donegal also took second place in biology with Connie Frey's project. Connie is the daughter of Herbert B. Frey, Marietta, RD1.

Tracee Sue Gotwalt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald P. Gotwalt, 160 New Haven St., Mount Joy, took second place in chemistry.

Donna Hay took third place. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Hay, 14 S. Queen St., Maytown.

Stacey Gingrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gingrich, 217 Pinkerton Road, Mount Joy, won second place in the life science category of the junior high division. Stacey is a student at Beahm Junior High.

Times sports staff chooses all-stars

After careful review of the records of all the players on all the teams in the Lancaster-Lebanon girls basketball league, The Susquehanna Times sports department has selected the following players to make up its all-star team:

Sherry Derr
Sherri Kinsey
Tanya Merchant
Beth Keffer

Sharon Hershey
Coach Bill Earhart looked over our selection and said, "This is the most unbiased selection I have seen thus far."

When he heard our selection read over the phone to him, the coach of the girls basketball team at McCaskey High School said, "What the Susquehanna Times?"

Girls' Basketball teams honored, presented trophies, awards, gifts

The third annual Donegal Girls Basketball Banquet was held Thursday, March 27, at 6:30 pm in the Hostetter Banquet Hall. There were 117 in attendance, including Donegal High School administrators, teachers, parents and friends.

Mr. Ken Depoe served as master of ceremonies, and junior varsity coach, Miss Deborah Geno, presented trophies to the members of the JV squad. Mr. Bill Earhart, varsity coach, presented trophies to the varsity team. He also presented special trophies to five girls for outstanding performance. They are Sherry Derr, Sharon Hershey, Beth Keffer, Sherri Kinsey and Tanya Merchant. Sherri Kinsey and Tanya Merchant also received plaques in recognition of their scoring over 1,000 career points.

Special gifts of appreciation were given to Miss Kitty Etsell, Mrs. Loretta Kelly, Mr. Cliff Shenk, Mr. Charles Groff, Mrs. Betty Kinsey and Miss Tanya Merchant.

The Donegal Booster Club presented the varsity team members with gifts, including County Title jackets, swimming and lodging at Howard Johnsons, a steak dinner at Mr. Steak and a grab bag with miscellaneous gifts.

Two banners designating the team as Section III Title Champions and Lancaster-
