Seven students from Donegal High School participated in the second annual "Search for Excellence" student recruitment program at Millersville State College March 26.

The seven students were selected to participate based on their high school class ranking and their potential for college level work.

The program introduces Millersville's offerings to top caliber academic students from throughout the county and enable those who apply to MSC to be eligible for ten $200 academic scholarships.

The seven students participating from Donegal are Brenda Hershey, Marietta, Sherry Derr and Donna Hay, Maytown, and Maxine Maxwell, Joyce Darkey, Timothy Milovich and Susan Klepper, all of Mount Joy.

Hershey Symphony Orchestra will conduct a Talent Search

The Hershey Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. John F. Harrison, announced a Talent Search to take place on Saturday, May 31, 1980 at the Hershey Educational and Cultural Center, Hershey. The purpose of the Search is to select two soloists for the 1980-1981 concert season. Instrumentalists who play either a brass instrument, viola, cello, or string bass are invited to audition. Participants are required to prepare at least one movement from a concerto in the standard orchestral repertoire. They must provide the judges with at least one copy of the music and bring their own accompanists.

Judges will be the music director, first chair orchestra members and members of the Orchestra's Board of Directors. Participants will be evaluated and they will be contacted at a later time with the results. No results will be available on the day of the audition.

To participate, send you name, address, phone number, and the name(s) or the work(s) prepared to: The Hershey Symphony Orchestra Society, P.O. Box 93, Hershey, PA 17033. Each participant will be contacted with an individual time to audition. No applications will be accepted after May 10, 1980.

April 11 and 12 rummage sale at Zion UCC

A rummage and bake sale sponsored by the Women's Guild of Zion United Church of Christ, Waterford Ave., Marietta, will be held Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12.

The Friday benefit will have old and new items for sale including clothing, household and personal second-hand merchandise. Pat Kunkle and Jean Prescott are co-chairpersons for the sale. The sale will run from 9 am until 6 pm.

A food sale will be held in conjunction with Saturday's rummage sale. Carol Drager and Eunice Rex will supervise the food sale which will run from 9 am until noon.

The benefit has been rescheduled due to the weather.

Banquet contributors missed

Last week's article on the Girls' basketball banquet did not contain the names of several groups who helped to contribute trophies and gifts.

Those omitted were: Groff and White, Donegal Mutual Insurance Co., National Standard, Kinsey's Archery and Hershey Brothers.
