

Home-ec class members with their young charges

DHS students experience child-rearing

A Donegal High home economics class got some realistic child-rearing experience last week when more than a dozen young children spent the day in students' care. Students in Mrs. Elinore Ruhl's child development class devoted the entire school day to their little charges.

The kids were entertained with games, stories, and filmstrips provided by the Mount Joy library. They were taken on walks and were fed in the cafeteria, under student supervision.

Children participating in the program were;

Lisa Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hess
Christina Zink, daughter of Ms. Gloria Zink

Jenny Aspen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Aspen
Nathan Drager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Drager

Austin Drager, also the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Drager

Cherie Frick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frick, Jr.

Jessie Shufflebottom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zebold Shufflebottom

Joshua Pabon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goldsboro

Jessica Bixler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bixler
Danielle Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swartz
Meredith Enos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Enos

Mandy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sandra Smith

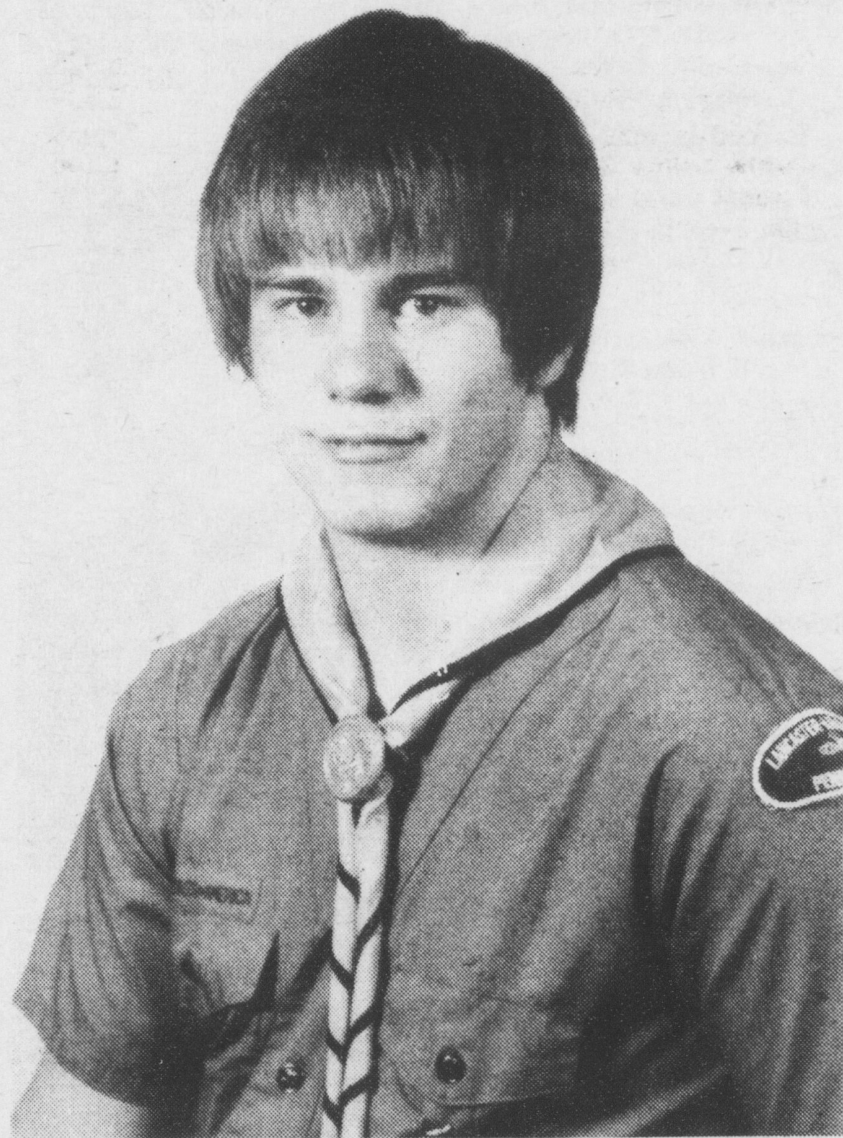

Chris Milovonovic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Milovonovic

Steve Kline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kline
Students participating included Sara Gettel, Diana Posten, Bonnie Knicely, Kelly Hoover, Pam

Plumber, Vickie Noll, Shirley Tready, Kathie Maguire, Pam Rineer, Sharon

Buckley, Penny Trick, Betsey Germer, Mary Jane Gordner and Michelle Yohe.

Kristofer "Kip" J. Embly

Embly is Eagle scout

Kristofer "Kip" J. Embly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jere Embly, Maytown, recently received his Eagle Rank in Scouting. Kip is a member of Troop #53, Maytown.

Kip started his scouting program with the cub scouts and has held offices such as Quartermaster, junior assistant Scoutmaster, Den chief for Webelos and chaplain of troop #53.

He is a member and Historian of the Order of the Arrow, Chiques Chapter, Wunita Lodge.

Kip holds 22 merit awards. His eagle project consisted of cleaning and replanting a piece of ground adjoining the parking lot of St. John's Lutheran Church, sponsor of troop #53. He put up four sections of rail fence and planted dogwood and azaleas.

Sponsors for the project were Herr's Fruit Market and the Marietta-Maytown Lion's Club.

Mrta. Lions elect officers at next meet

Parke Plasterer, Deputy District 14D Governor, Lion's International, presented a talk for the regular meeting of the Marietta Lion's club dinner meeting at the Colonial Inn. Two new members were inducted by District membership chairman, Bob Fackler—Harold Wilson and Walter Nau.

Robert Spangler, president conducted the business session when the nominating committee, Richard Smedley, James Price and Ivan Hess, presented the slate of candidates. Election will be held at the next meeting.

The slate includes: Edgar Appley, president; Ronald Perry, 1st vice-president; James Libhart, 2nd vice-president and secretary; Patrick Kenney Jr., 3rd vice-president; Richard McKain, treasurer; Ivan Hess, taittwister; Joe Gilmartin, one year trustee; Ivan Hess and Edward Charles, three year trustees.

Edward Charles was appointed a committee of one to investigate the costs of repairing the tennis courts at Memorial Park. The courts were installed at the close of World War II and have been maintained by Marietta Lion's Club since that time.
