PUFA looks for "singing" alumni

People United for the Arts (PUFA) is looking for

Donegal Alumni who would like to be part of the Alumni Chorus at the PUFA Command Performance III to be held June 7, 1980, at the Donegal High School auditorium.

Persons interested in being a part of this chorus should contact Betty Hershey, 43 Springville Road, Mount Joy (653-1723) or Lois Witman, R.D.#1, Marietta (653-5358) no later than May 1.

Mrs. RoAnn Lau, DHS Choral Director, will hold a rehearsal Friday, June 6. The time will be announced later.

Donegal Dramatics Club to perform 'Night of January 16th' May 9 & 10

The Donegal High School Dramatics Club announces its Spring production of "Night of January 16th," a comedy/drama in 3 acts written by Ayn Rand. The performance will take place Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10, at 8:00 pm in the high school auditorium.

The Dramatics Club, one of the largest and most active clubs in the school, has provided a Spring production for a number of years. The club also sponsors an annual Veterans' Day program which has received commendation from local, state and national officials for its tribute to veterans.

In the 1979-80 school year the club has also produced a one-act play, "Make Mine Vanilla," which has been presented several times in the area.

In addition, the Dramatics Club has presented a number of special programs for business and community groups throughout the year. Other activities of the club include assemblies, workshops in the arts, bake sales and ushering for school activities. Next year the club plans to develop a children's theatre presentation.

Current officers of the Dramatics Club are: Mark Wagner, president; Phillip Landis, vice president;

Georgiann Westerman, secretary; LaTisha Barnitz, treasurer; and Fred Straub, parliamentarian.

Faculty advisor for the Donegal High School Dramatics Club is Mary-Margaret Peraro.

Correction

Last week's article on the installation of Jaycee and Joyce-ette officers contained an error. Beverly Swanson, in the awards segment of the program, was named Outstanding Board Member.

We apologize for our error.
