FIFTEEN CENTS

Donegal High students inducted into Honor Society

Twenty-four members of the junior and senior classes of Donegal High School were inducted into the National Honor Society at the annual ceremony Tuesday, April 29, in the auditorium.

Dr. Marion Oliver presented the address and William Gutshall was chairman of the ceremony. Julie Endsloew served as historian and Pamela Ebersole explained the qualities of scholarship. Sherri Kinsey related the assets of leadership and Connie Frey evaluated the possession of character. Judith Kerschner conducted the roll call of members and Terry Berg welcomed the new members. Philip Spickler responded for the six seniors and 18 juniors. Mark Wagner presented a vocal solo accompanied by Lonnie Earhart.

Donald W. Drenner, supervising principal, made advisory remarks and William Gutshall offered the concluding remarks.

Members, guests and faculty members were invited to a tea in the cafeteria following the ceremony.

'May Days' sale in Mount Joy

The Mount Joy Merchants' Association is holding its annual Spring Sale. This year the May Days sale will be held May 1, 2, and 3.

This is an excellent time for local shoppers to take advantage of great spring bargains at Mount Joy stores. Many Mount Joy merchants will be participating in the sale.

It is also a time to register to win "Joy Bucks".

$600.00 in prizes will be given away in the form of these "Joy Bucks" which are redeemable at participating merchants.

Downtown parking meters will be bagged, so that parking is free all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Check the ads in this issue of the Susquehanna Times, beginning on page 7, for the bargains available this week in Mount Joy.
