Lillian Fry

Mrs. Lillian Fry elected BPW pres.

Mrs. John Fry was reelected president of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club at the April meeting at Hostetter's. Other reelected officers are: Mrs. Ada Thompson, first vice-president; Mrs. Barry Enos, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Baker, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Bookwalter, treasurer; and Miss Mary Jane Hoffer, second vice-president.

The slate was presented by Mrs. Clayton Bell, chairperson of the nominating committee.

Mrs. Rita Schorr-German, formerly an employee of the United Nations, spoke on the subject, "What the United Nations Does for Us." She said that the U.N. grew out of American ideals, especially those of Woodrow Wilson, who helped found the U.N.'s forerunner, the League of Nations.

Mrs. William Lambert reported that $80.25 was forwarded to the National Foundation of BPW as this club's contribution.

The revised by-laws are available to those members who have not received theirs.

The president appointed these members to the Memorial Day Benefit Committee: Mrs. Donald Straub, Miss Mary Jane Hoffer, Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Arthur Sprecher, Mrs. Herbert Sarver and Mrs. Fry.

The July activity committee will include Mrs. Lester Eshleman, Mrs. Christine Brown, Mrs. Elaine Richards, Mrs. Paul Little, and Mrs. Earl Koser (chairperson).

Auditors elected were Mrs. Richard White, Mrs.

William Barto and Mrs. Eugene Eicherly.

The May meeting will be held on the 17th at Hostetter's Banquet Hall, with the Civic Participation Committee arranging the program.

Doris Saylor, girl of the month, was introduced by Mrs. James Spangler, along with Doris' mother, Mrs. Stanley Saylor.

Mrs. John Fry conducted the business session and presented a report of the spring District 7 meeting. She announced that Mrs. Earl Koser will serve as District Foundation chairperson and that the District will sponsor "Man of LaMancha" at the Fulton Theater in August.

Mrs. Eugene Eicherly and Mrs. Ben Horst reported on the Women in Government luncheon, where they were the recipients of a certificate of achievement.

Two students at Donegal High, Deb Torres and Mark Wagner, entertained with Spanish and German songs.

Mixed doubles tennis tourney Memorial Day

The Mount Joy Tennis Club will hold a Memorial Day week-end mixed doubles tennis tournament. Play will begin Saturday, May 24, with the finals on Monday, May 26.

For registration and information, call Coover, 426-2156; Graham, 653-4816; or Groff, 653-2066 before May 22.

Mrta. Lions hold meeting

The Marietta Lion's Club met Thursday, May 8. The speaker for the meeting was Carol Neuman, a fiscal officer for the Lancaster County Office of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, Drug and Alcohol Abuse.

Ms. Neuman gave a slide presentation showing the various service centers in Lancaster County. There are nine such centers, she told the group, where services and information are available.

President-elect Edgar Appleby presided over the meeting in the absence of president Bob Spangler.

Discussion concerning the upcoming summer meetings and their locations occupied the greater part of the meeting. The group also discussed possible services to the community.
