

Did You Hear?

§§§

Grace Steinmetz, Chiques Road, RD#1, Manheim, will be one of the artists in the Echo Valley Art Group's first studio tour. Mrs. Steinmetz' studio will be open Sunday, May 25, from 12 to 5 pm. The studio is located across the Chiques Creek from the Steinmetz home. The salt-box structure is a direct result of "Agnes" . . . the artist's old studio was destroyed by the flood. The new building includes such luxury features as a 14 foot wall for large paintings, a bath and shower, a mini kitchen, and twin skylights in the north-west corner. Mrs. Steinmetz works in the media of oil, acrylic, collage, lithograph, and serigraphy. Many of her works will be on display. The artist's major interests are the effects of light and color on natural forms. The presence of mankind is usually implied if not actually indicated in her subjects. Mrs. Steinmetz is listed in Who's Who in American Art, Who's Who in American Women, and is a Fellow of the Royal Society of art, London. She is also a member of the National Society of Painters in Casein and Acrylic.

§§§

§§§

Alice Musser, daughter of Leonard and Jeanette Musser, 3 East High St., Maytown, was recently honored at the Messiah College all-sports banquet held at the college's Grantham Campus.

Miss Musser received the Most Valuable Player award for field, awarded by the women's track and field team, in recognition of her performance in the javelin event. In its second year as a team, women's track and field was 3-4. Miss Musser, a Messiah freshman with undecided major, graduated last year from Donegal High School.

§§§

Jeffrey Showers, 278 Rivermoor Drive, Marietta, will be a top award winner Wednesday, May 14, during the Penn State/York's annual awards dinner at York's Wisheaven Hall.

The second-year electrical engineering technology student will receive the York Manufacturer's Association Award for excellence in his engineering studies, the Tau Alpha Pi Award for earning the highest cumulative point average among sophomore electrical engineering technology students, and a Keystone Honor Society Key Award for maintaining the highest cumulative grade point average in his program.

Showers is a Manheim Central graduate and will receive his associate degree at York on May 29.

§§§

Leisure Club meets

The Mount Joy Area Leisure Club met recently with 110 members and guests present. President Joe Shaeffer called the meeting to order and asked for a moment of silent prayer for Mr. Clinton Eby. Mr. Arthur Braun followed with the invocation.

Teressa Heisey read the secretary's report during the business portion of the meeting, and Almeda Hostetter gave the treasurer's report. Ruth Brandt reported five cards sent to the sick.

Belle Ludwig told the group of her recent bus trip when she attended church with President Carter. After the service Belle shook hands with Carter, and he mentioned that he liked the hat she was wearing.

President Shaeffer announced that the June 9 meeting will include a birthday party and talent show given by the members. Appointed to the planning committee for the event were Almeda Hostetter and Ruth Brandt.

Lillian Hershey and Mr. and Mrs. Kulp were introduced as guests. New members are the Rev. and Mrs. Woodrow Kern, Anna Billet and Erma Wagner.

Hostesses for the May meeting are Grace May, Maggie May, Alice Myers, Dorothy Neidig, Fern Ober, Harriet Raebuck, Helen Rice, Grace Shaeffer, Mrs. David Stauffer and Martha

Mateer. Margaret Fackler and Mrs. Edna Martin will be greeters. The president announced that the May meeting will be an auction and members were asked to bring unwrapped articles for the sale.

Following the meeting the Rhythm Singers of Donegal High School put on a program. Mrs. Lau is director of the group.

Births

GLATTACKER, Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Kathleen Grossman), 11 Villager Townhouse, Maytown, a son at the St. Joseph Hospital last week.

TODAY'S YOUNG PEOPLE ARE GOING PLACES

Especially in the United States Air Force. By enlisting now, you can take advantage of immediate job openings in such fields as Plus, the Air Force can offer you an excellent salary . . . training at some of the finest technical schools in the nation . . . the chance to work on your 2-year associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force . . . valuable on-the-job experience . . . world-wide assignments . . . 30 days of vacation a year . . . medical care . . . dental care . . . and much more.

It's one of the finest opportunities in the nation. Call today. For information, contact

MSgt. Woody McGee
44 S. Duke St., Lancaster
299-2252

DISCO DANCE

Maytown Fire hall

Friday, May 16th

$2.00 Admission

8 pm to 1 am

DISC JOCKEY STAN TUCKER

'Joy Bucks' winners

The above photograph shows the top three winners in the Mount Joy "May Days" Joy Bucks contest. Receiving their "Bucks" from Mrs. Clara Hostetter, president of the Mount Joy Merchants Association [at right] are, left to right: Jacob Conley, RD#3, Mount Joy, $100 third prize; Austin J. Harple, Mount Joy, $150 second prize; and Marian Stone, RD#1 Bainbridge, $200 first prize. Other winners were: Mrs. Thomas Learn, Elizabethtown, $50; Jane Geib, Elizabethtown, $40; Ken Musser, Mount Joy, $30; Brenda L. Buziak, Mount Joy, $20; and Al Williams, Mount Joy, $10.

The pharmacy with the extras

- ★ Open seven days a week
- ★ Free delivery service
- ★ 24 hour emergency service
- ★ Complete surgical garment and convalescent aid department staffed by 3 certified fitters
- ★ Annual prescription tax records kept for each family
- ★ Senior citizen prescription plan offering 10% discount

Visit our restaurant for the finest in home-made soups and platters, served daily.

684-2552 684-2551

Hinkle's Pharmacy, Inc.

...on the corner since 1893
Third & Locust Sts., Columbia