Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 In the spring of 1980 I purchased a Jenny Wren house. For about a month I awaited the arrival of the Wren family. I was told that I was too late and all the wrens were settled. Then I remembered the free classified ad section of the Susquehanna Times Exchange. Within 5 days of the published ad I saw evidence of a family moving in. Today it was my pleasure to witness Jenny entering the front door. The wrens appear to be good housekeepers and fine cheerful neighbors. Many thanks to your fine newspaper for your assistance. You certainly made a believer out of me—"advertising in the Susquehanna Times gets results."

Editors note: We received several inquiries regarding the ad which appeared in the April 30 Times and were happy to direct the prospective tenants to Mr. Matoney's house.

MARIETTA TIMES

Do you have any antique desk drawers in which type was kept in the past? At that time they were probably in the printing press room of the newspaper.

My family lived in Marietta over sixty years ago. My father was Dr. George L. Cassel and my uncle was the Hon. H. Burd Cassel. Very likely there is no one living in Marietta now who would remember our family. I wonder if any of the Duffy family or the Heistand Family or the Rich family are there now.

I saw in the Lancaster paper that this Saturday is Marietta Day. While we were living there, Marietta celebrated her Centennial. That was in 1912. I have the Souvenir Booklet of the affair which contains thirty-eight views of streets, houses, floats and stores. I also have post cards that I bought while living there. I have an old history when one of the streets was called "Elbow Lane." I have deeds to land there that date back to 1814, and also many, many memories of the town as it used to be and of the Susquehanna and the Accomac.

When you have time please let me know if you have any old type drawers stuck away somewhere. I am taking for granted that the Marietta Times is still going strong as a weekly paper.

Very sincerely,

a new way to make your life easier

Imagine how difficult your life would be without the telephone to run your errands, keep you in touch with friends and summon help in emergencies. Now United Telephone offers the TeleDialer 32 to make your telephone even more convenient.

The TeleDialer 32 remembers up to 32 numbers you call frequently, and can dial any of them at the touch of a single button. Four "HELP" numbers (fire, police, ambulance - whatever you select) are identified by brightly colored over-size buttons, so a child, babysitter or elderly person can call for assistance fast if the need arises.

Also, the TeleDialer lets you make all your calls by push-button even if your regular phone has a conventional dial. If the number you call is busy, don't worry about forgetting the number before you call again. Just touch the "last number called" button, and presto - the TeleDialer re-dials for you.

Best of all, the TeleDialer 32 costs less than you might believe. For our United Telephone of Pennsylvania customers, it leases for only $5.75 per month plus applicable service connection charges. You may also choose to buy one for only $219.95.

Visit or call your United Telephone Business Office or Phone Shop to learn how easy it is to make your life easier.
