3rd grade questions Council

Members of Mrs. Bowers' third grade social studies class at Riverview Elementary School attended the Marietta Council meeting last week. They were invited to ask questions during the public hour, and responded with a variety of queries, such as, "Why do we need a council?"

To which council president Jay Roberts replied, "You know, I've asked myself that many times."

Other tough questions included:

"When you find high or drunk people, what do you do with them?"
