Lancaster's Art Alley scheduled for June 28

Art alley Student Show and Sale will be held in Penn Square, Lancaster, on two separate days this year as events of the Lancaster Summer Arts Festival.

This open air art and crafts show featuring the work of Lancaster County students is scheduled for Saturday, June 28, from noon to dusk.

Students will again have an opportunity to showcase their work on Sunday, July 13, beginning at noon. Penn Square will also be the setting for a concert by The New Christy Minstrels at 7pm, sponsored by the Commonwealth National Bank.

No advance registration is necessary for Art Alley which is open to all art students, age 25 and younger, living or studying in Lancaster County. Students should come prepared to set up and display their work. All forms of original art—paintings, sculptures, drawings, sketches and others—may be offered for sale. No entry fee will be charged and the sponsor, The Fine Arts League of Lancaster, will charge no commission on sales. The committee may order the withdrawal of any work it considers inappropriate.

All sales will be conducted by the artists who should be prepared to make change. Each is responsible for his displays, easels, pegboards or other materials. The price of each work offered for sale must be displayed.

The Commonwealth National Bank will award a $50 savings bond to each of 12 winners of an art contest to be held in connection with the second Art Alley show on July 13.

Entries in the contest are limited to pen and ink drawings and must reflect a subject representative of Lancaster County. Winning entries will become part of a 1981 calendar to be distributed by the bank's Lancaster County offices.

Application blanks were distributed to county schools.

A FAIRWAY FRIENDSHIP is budding between March of Dimes 1980 National Poster Child Betsy Burch and Arnold Palmer. The two have much in common, especially a desire to see the threat of birth defects removed. Palmer is National Chairman for the March of Dimes, whose mission is prevention of birth defects. Betsy, 6, of Stone Mountain, Ga., was born with webbed fingers and a malformed right leg. She represents more than a quarter of a million babies born annually with birth defects.
