James R. Bennett

James R. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bennett Jr., 257 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy, recently was promoted to Army lieutenant colonel while assigned as an instructor with the Academy of Health Sciences, U.S. Army of Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

The appointing orders for this promotion stated "... The President of the U.S. has placed special trust and confidence in this officer's patriotism, valor, fidelity and abilities."

The promotion was based upon these qualities and the demonstrated potential for increased responsibility.

Bennett entered the Army in July 1964 and received his commission through the ROTC program.

He received a master's degree in 1976 from Baylor University, Fort Sam, Houston. His wife Mary is with him at the fort.

Wheatland volunteers are needed

History buffs, antique lovers, and old house enthusiasts are invited to join a new group of Docents at Wheatland. Docents are volunteers—men or women—who give tours of the mansion residence and who make mid-19th century life at Wheatland come alive for visitors. As a Wheatland Docent you will meet people who share your enthusiasm for antiques, old buildings, and American history. You will participate in supper parties, in craft workshops, and in specially planned trips to other historic sites.

Sally Cahalan, Marietta, is director of Wheatland.

To learn more about the Wheatland Docent Program, call 717/392-8721.
