Rev. R. Shellenberger returns to Marietta; to be honored Sunday

The Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, formerly of Marietta, will return to St. John's Episcopal Church, where he served as a choir boy and altar boy in 1910, as the guest preacher on Sunday, June 8.

Fr. Shellenberger celebrated his Golden Anniversary in the Sacred Priesthood in 1978 and is now rector emeritus of St. John's Church, Kinston, New York, having served that church 30 years. He is still very active in community functions and most recently represented his home district as a Congressional Senior Citizen intern to the city of Washington D.C. He is still active as a supply minister in his diocese.

A reception will be held in the parish hall immediately after the service in honor of Fr. Shellenberger.

Elementary students plan trip

The members of the Donegal Elementary Band will take a trip to King's Dominion Amusement Park on Friday, June 6. Two buses will leave the four elementary schools from 5:30 am to 6:30 am and will return about 10 pm.

One fee includes admission to the park, rides and shows. Mr. Morrell Shields is advisor of the band.

Run for Independence July 5th in Marietta

The first annual "Run for Independence" sponsored by the Marietta Jaycees will be held Saturday, July 5, at 10am. The contest will include both a two- and a five-mile race. For details and applications for the run, visit your local sporting goods store or contact any Marietta Jaycee member.

The Marietta Jaycees are currently gearing up for their annual "Stay at Home Fourth of July" celebration. "The celebration is usually a 'bang' up job and this year is no exception," stated Bill Wagner, a member of the Jaycees.

The carnival will be held July 3, 4, and 5 at the Marietta War Memorial Park just off Route #441 in Marietta. Highlights for this year's celebration include: music by the group Hunter on Thursday; games for the children and a visit from your "Favorite Mouse" Friday afternoon; a personal appearance by the Captain of Q106 radio station Friday evening; and a return engagement by Hunter Saturday followed by one of the grandest fireworks displays in the state of Pennsylvania.

Accompanying all of the festivities will be games of skill and chance, new and bigger rides, and delicious food and refreshments.

If your club or organization would like to participate in the festivities, mail request to Marietta Jaycees, Box 122, Marietta, PA 17547, or contact any Jaycee member.

Marietta Aux. to Columbia H. meets June 9th

The members of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital will meet for lunch at 11:30am at the Rising Sun Hotel, Columbia, on Monday, June 9. After the luncheon the group will go to the Columbia Hospital for the June meeting.

A queen size handmade quilt will be awarded to a raffle winner at this time. Chances are still available from members.

A Grandview Kindergarten student receives her "Bachelor of Rhyme" from Mother Goose at graduation exercises held Thursday, May 29.

Grandview Kindergarten earns bachelor of rhyme

Members of the Grandview Kindergarten Class of 1980 received their Bachelor of Rhymes degrees Thursday, May 29, at a special graduation assembly. Mrs. Libhart is the teacher of Grandview's kindergarten.

Parents and fellow students looked on as the graduating class sang its class song, "Twinkle Little Star" and recited nursery rhymes to Mother Goose, portrayed by third grade student Julie Keener.

Following the nursery rhyme program students received their degrees from Mother Goose.
