Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gutshall

Mr. & Mrs. A. Gutshall celebrate Golden anniv.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gutshall, R1 Marietta, observed their 50th anniversary with a surprise dinner at Willow Valley Restaurant.

They were married June 5, 1930 in Maryland. Mr. Gutshall is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gutshall. Mrs. Gutshall is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick.

They are the parents of four daughters, Mildred, wife of Gene Mohr; Betty, wife of Douglas McNaughton, both of Marietta; Sandra, wife of Ted Shelly, Mount Joy R2; and Alberta, wife of Brad Rohrbaugh of Hellam.

They are the grandparents of 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Gutshall are the former owners of Herr's Fruit Market (known as Gutshall's Fruit Market); Kline's Trailer Court (formerly Gutshall's Trailer Court), and Marco's Restaurant (known as Fran and Al's Restaurant to many.)

Gutshall has been retired, but now drives Lancaster Limousine parttime. He enjoys hunting, fishing and traveling.

Mrs. Gutshall is also retired and enjoys bowling, traveling and being with people.

They are also the parents of the late Patricia Ginder, wife of Walter Ginder, 22 Briar Cliff Road, Elizabethtown.

Mrs. Gutshall is the sister of Walter Kirkpatrick, Carlisle R.D.; Ray Kirkpatrick, Hershey R.D.; Evie, Bainbridge, wife of the late Wilson Gutshall; Mildred, Lancaster; John Kirkpatrick, Middletown; Arlene Fitzwater, Elizabethtown; James Kirkpatrick, Mt. Joy.

Mr. Gutshall is the brother of Ida Hockenberry, Bainbridge; Ethel Fitzpatrick, Elizabethtown, and the late Wilson Gutshall, Bainbridge.

Donegal Presbyterian Strawberry Festival

The traditional strawberry festival, sponsored by the Men's Association of historic Donegal Presbyterian Church, Mt. Joy RD1, will be held Saturday, June 14, from 3 to 8PM., in the church grove.

Ice cream, strawberries, cake and beverage will be offered. Also available at additional cost will be soups and sandwiches.

Several hundred quarts of Lancaster-grown berries will be picked by church volunteers. Proceeds from the festival help fund a variety of church projects.

Donegal HS student council honors retiring personnel

Mrs. Helen Barnhart and Alice Watts were honored at the high school last Wednesday, June 4. Both are retiring from their cafeteria duties at Donegal.
