Harvey Gantz Jr.

Harvey Gantz is honors grad

On May 31, Harvey Gantz, Jr., received his Master of Public Administration degree from the University of Denver, Denver, Colorado. Mr. Gantz received several distinguished honors. He was inducted into BETA GAMMA SIGMA, the national business honorary. He was also inducted into PI ALPHA ALPHA, the national public affairs and public administration honor society. Mr. Gantz was also honored with the prestigious GOVERNOR'S AWARD IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION. The Governor's Award in Public Administration is awarded by the Governor of the State of Colorado (Governor Richard Lamm) to the graduate student in public administration with the highest overall grade point average.

While at the University of Denver, Harvey served as the administrative assistant to the Director of the Executive Management MPA program and was instrumental in the growth and development of that program which began in January of 1979. Also while at D.U., Mr. Gantz interned with the Mountain Plains Federal Regional Council and there he authored an original document which dealt with the process of and probable impacts from oil and gas exploration. The document entitled, "A Laymen's Guide to Oil and Gas Development", is part of a federal government effort to help energy impacted areas cope with the concerns involved with energy-related growth. The document was published and distributed to county and local officials of federal region VIII (Montana, North and South Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah).

Harvey Gantz, Jr., is a December 1978 graduate of Eastern College, St. Davids, Pennsylvania. He is a 1975 alumnus of Columbia High School, Columbia, Pa. Harvey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gantz, Sr., 306 Perry Street, Columbia, Pennsylvania.

Beginning June 9th, Mr. Gantz will accept a position as consultant to the Environmental Data Processing Center of the Denver region office of the U.S. Department of the Interior.
