

Stacy Nein, the Marietta Angel named the most valuable player in the recent Elizabethtown Girls' Softball Tournament.

Stacy Nein, Marietta, b-ball tournament MVP

The Marietta Angels, a group of the Marietta Youth Athletic Association, competed in the Elizabethtown Girls' Softball Tournament, 8 to 12 year age bracket, on the weekend of June 6, 7 and 8.

The Angels finished in fourth place out of 17 teams from Middletown, Highspire, Lancaster, Elizabethtown and Marietta areas. The Angels lost two games by only one run.

Stacy Nein, of the Angels, won the most valuable player award for the tournament. Stacy hit three home runs and played excellent defense.

The M.Y.A.A. congratulates Mr. Dave Turek and coaches for a great job done with the youngsters. The association also praises the team for the good showing it made in the tournament.

Local forest fire crew plans lumberjack fest
