Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaeffer, Mount Joy, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday.

Mr. & Mrs. J. Shaeffer have 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaeffer, 127 Park Avenue, Mount Joy, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, June 15, with a drop-in party at Hostetter's Banquet Hall, Mount Joy. Helping in the planning and assisting at the celebration was the Shaeffers' daughter Joan and her husband, Donald Eby.

The Shaeffers were married on Flag Day, June 14, 1930 in Elkton, Maryland, by the Rev. Morgan, a Methodist Minister.

They are very active in their retired lives. Joe retired as postmaster of Mount Joy in 1972, having served in the postal service for 43 years. His wife Grace retired from the Mount Joy plant of AMP in 1975.

One of their favorite pastimes is traveling, frequently and to many different places. Joe is active in community affairs. He is president of the Mount Joy Area Leisure Club, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, treasurer and bulletin editor of the Rotary Club, president of the Mount Joy Helping Services, and teacher of an adult Sunday School class in the Chiques Methodist Church. His hobbies besides traveling are stamp collecting and also collecting old Mount Joy items. Joe has been a lifelong resident of Mount Joy.

His wife Grace is active also. She is vice-president of the Golden Age Fellowship of the Chiques Methodist Church and is president of the Mount Joy Stamp Club. Her hobbies, besides traveling are collecting a certain pattern of old ironstone dishes and also collecting Christmas seals.

The Shaeffers have four grandchildren.

Blue Ridge Haven West

Professional and para-professional staff members of Blue Ridge Haven West have completed a series of mini-courses for job-skill enhancement, offered by the Harrisburg Area Community College. The five courses were part of a pilot project to revive the Human Services Program at HACC.

They also mark the beginning of a continuing education program with a major emphasis on "Job-skill improvement and superior resident care," reports Curtis Horwitz, Administrator of Blue Ridge Haven West.
