New officers are installed at Mount Joy BPW meeting

The Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club installed officers at their last meeting, held Monday, June 23, at Hostetter's Dining Hall.

Mrs. Michalene Willy, Director of District #7, installed the incoming officials and inducted new members. Serving for the 1980-81 term will be: Lillian Fry, president; Ada Thompson, first vice president; Mary Jane Hoffer, second vice president; Hazel Baker, recording secretary; Pat Enos, corresponding secretary; and Mary Bookwalker, treasurer.

New members installed were Mrs. Mary Stoner, Mrs. Ken Johns, Mrs. Don Straub and Mrs. Richard White.

Mrs. Thomas Hoover was in charge of the evening's program. She introduced soloist Sandy Heisey who presented vocal selections accompanying herself on the piano.

"Old Memories and Young Hopes," a slide presentation, was shown by Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Brown.

Cindy Heagy, Donegal Girl of the month, and her mother, Mrs. Frederick Heagy, were introduced to the club. Also present was BPW scholarship winner Tracee Gotwalt and her mother, Mrs. Ronald Gotwalt.

The BPW's summer outing will be held at John Henry Brubaker's on July 28, 6:30 pm. Members will be contacted via telephone square.

The board meeting will be held at the home of the president on July 14, at 7:30 pm.

Date changed for pinochle

Due to the July fourth holiday the monthly pinochle party of the Maytown Civic Association will be held at the Municipal Building at 8:00 pm Thursday July 3.

Farm Women meet June 21

Farm Women's Society #8 met at the home of Hettie Ginder, Mount Joy, R.D.#2, Saturday, June 21, at 2 pm. The society president Kathryn Heisey was in charge of the meeting. Sixteen members and two visitors were present. The song "O Beautiful for Spacious Skies" was sung by the group.

Ruth Musser was in charge of devotions. The secretary's report was given by Anna Mae Derr. Mrs. Richard Funk was installed as a new member. Response to roll call was given by answering the question "Who taught you to drive a car?"

The main feature of the afternoon was the discussion on fire safety given by Frank Good from the fire company. He gave numerous pointers on fire prevention in the home and suggested the use of smoke detectors.

Hostesses for the meeting were Hettie Ginder, Patsy Warfel, Florence Musser and Ruth Musser.

August is the month for the County Picnic.

The next meeting will be held September 27 at 2 pm. It will be held at the home of Grace Bixler, Marietta, R.D.#1.

D. Democrats hold meeting

An organizational meeting of the Donegal Democrats was held at the home of John E. Matoney, Donegal Springs Road, Thursday, June 24.

Nancy Harclerode, chairman of the Lancaster County Democratic Committee, presided at the meeting. John E. Matoney was elected District Leader for the Donegal area. Ms. Harclerode stated that she has known and worked with Jack on party affairs for many years and was confident that his political experience will enable him to re-build the party in the Donegal District. The first order of business will be the filling of the vacant posts that exist.

Ms. Harclerode pledged to the group her intentions of being a hardworking county chairman. She also told the Donegal organization that the support of all party members throughout the county is welcomed.

In other business, James Pakarek, president of the Donegal Democratic Club, requested that the club meeting be rescheduled for a later date.
