E. Timothy Pretz

Timothy Pretz, minister of E. U. Presbyterian

S. Timothy Pretz has been elected pastor of the English United Presbyterian Church, Marietta.

The Wayne native graduated from Radnor High School and earned a B.S. degree in math from Bucknell University, Lewis-town. He resided in Mount Joy for one year during which time he was employed at Watt & Shand department store, Park City.

He entered Gardon-Cromwell Theological Seminary, Beverly, Mass., graduating this year with a Master of Divinity degree. He served as a student intern in Marblehead.

Pretz is married to the former Lee Anne Evans, of Villanova, Pa. She is a graduate of Radnor High School and Bucknell University. She has taught at Warwick High School and has worked as a computer programmer for John Hancock Co., Boston. The couple was married in 1976.

Rev. Pretz will be ordained in his church July 26th.

2. Bids to be acted upon for library books, musical instruments, dishwasher.
3. Recommendation on student insurance for 1980-81.
4. Building repair items.
5. Discussion of possible expansion of IU 13 Board.
6. Other matters, as may come up.

Lions Club of Marietta gets 'thank you' letter

The Marietta Lions Club received the following letter from the Lancaster County Branch of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind following a Lions Club visit to the Blind Center.

Dear Lion President:

Please extend our sincere thanks to the members of the Marietta Lions Club for their generous check in the amount of $155.00 representing contributions from your club of $100.00, from Brent and Vicki Shunk of $20.00, and from The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, Columbia, of $35.00. As you requested, this contribution will be used for our Radio Talking Library.

Thanks, too, for the 300 pairs of eyeglasses which you brought in. We appreciate your club's support of this project of our agency.

Best wishes.

Marion R. Campbell
Executive Director
