Dave Brodhecker, Rheems, and Deb Sager, Marietta, demonstrate the art of keeping cool during this heat wave on their raft dubbed the "Spirit of America." Dave and Deb built the raft for the Great Budweiser Raft Race held Sunday. The race began at the Codorus Furnace and continued down the Codorus Creek to the Susquehanna and the Broken Oar Tavern. Deb and Dave didn't win, but they tell us they had fun anyway. The raft, in the photo above, is being tested on the SUSQUEHANNA TIMES pond.

Sam excelled in the three key Pitch, Hit and Run skills: pitching for accuracy; hitting for distance; and running against the clock, to achieve the highest combined score of all youngsters in the 11-year-old age group. The Pitch, Hit and Run Competition, open to boys and girls ages 8 to 13, was held at Gladfelter Field. At the same time, more than 1,000 similar competitions were being conducted nation-wide. Pitch, Hit and Run, the official youth program of Major League Baseball is sponsored as a public service by local Burger King restaurants, and was developed in cooperation with the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Sam is a student at Riverview Elementary School and plays baseball for the Marietta Youth Athletic Association and ice hockey for the Lancaster Youth Hockey Association. Local winners of the Pitch, Hit and Run event will go on to compete at the District Competition to be held at Lawntown Park, Harrisburg, July 26, 1980. District winners are then eligible to compete in Division Championships held at eleven Major League Stadiums across the country. Out of this field of winners will emerge the top twelve scores in the nation (two in each age group). These lucky youngsters will go on to compete at historic Cooperstown, New York, home of Baseball's Hall of Fame, and will receive their awards on-field prior to the second game of the 1980 World Series.
