Feature film Joni to be shown in Cola.

Thirty people met Thursday, July 24, at Columbia Baptist Chapel to plan for the World Wide Pictures film, Joni, coming to the State Theater, Columbia, from October 10 to 16.

Paul Kulow, the premiere director, working out of the World Wide Pictures office in Minneapolis, was in charge of the meeting. Pastors, church delegates, and other committee members viewed an eight minute promotional film and message from Joni herself. The duties and responsibilities of the different committees were outlined.

Joni Eareckson was voted the "Most Athletic" girl in her graduating class at Woodlawn Senior High School, in Maryland. One month after receiving her diploma, Joni was a quadriplegic, the result of a tragic diving accident in the dark waters of the Chesapeake Bay, leaving her with a broken neck. In a fraction of a second, she had been transformed from a young woman absorbed in a variety of sports to one whose life was seemingly at an end. Joni, the World Wide Pictures film which opens at the Columbia State Theater October 10, is a remarkable story of her struggle to build

Joni Eareckson portrays herself in JONI, a new release from World Wide Pictures. Based on her best-selling book, JONI is the story of a young woman's courageous struggle against quadriplegia and depression, and the deep faith upon which she was able to rebuild her shattered dreams.

Executive director William F. Brown, producer Frank B. Jacobson, and director James F. Collier chose an unknown actress to star in the title role of the film: Joni Eareckson, herself.

"We discussed it vaguely at first," Brown explained. "Joni has this remarkable, effervescent personality, a sparkle that constantly flows from within. As we reviewed the professional actresses we thought might be right for the role, we couldn't find one to match her personality."

Joni was flown to Hollywood for a screen test. The results were outstanding.

In a powerful and dramatic film, the agonies and the achievements, the joys and the hopes are shared with the viewer. The impact of the message is made even more outstanding by the performance of the star of the film: Joni Eareckson portraying herself.

A report meeting will be held August 7 at six pm at the Columbia Baptist Chapel to report on church contacts. A pastor's information packet has been sent to area ministers.

The Columbia committee requests prayers for the success of the film. Volunteers are also needed to help promote the film. For more information, call Lu-ann Peiffer, 684-8957.
