Council acted to vacate Lemon Street from Main Street north to Pink Alley, also an unnamed alley leading off in a northerly direction from Donegal Springs Road, and an alley in an easterly direction from West Donegal Street.

Approval was given for reaching an agreement with PennDOT for snow and ice removal on 7.13 miles of streets in the borough.

Council voted to advertise a proposed ordinance to provide ramping at various curbs.

The Health and Safety Committee was authorized to draw up an ordinance regulating the behavior of dogs and cats, making owners responsible.

The borough manager was given authority to draw up an ordinance rezoning the lot on which the Borough Park House is located along the road to Manheim, changing it from open area to residential. At the same time Council authorized the borough manager to subdivide the property from the Borough Park, prior to its November meeting.
