

Mr. and Mrs. Armor McKain

50 years of marriage celebrated by McKains

Mr. and Mrs. Armor McKain, 620 West Market Street, Marietta, were honored by their family at a surprise dinner party at Three Center Square, Maytown, recently. The event was in observance of the couple's fiftieth wedding anniversary. The couple was married August 16, 1930, by the late Reverend Musser in the United Church of Christ parsonage, Marietta.

The couple has three sons: Harold, Marietta; Ronald, Mount Joy; and Jack Marietta. They also have 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Armor, retired from the former Olmstead Air Force Base, Middletown, enjoys gardening. His wife Helen has retired from the Maytown Shoe Factory and enjoys housework, crafts, flowers and her grandchildren.

Both natives of Marietta, Armor is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Armor McKain and Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Marley. The couple attends the United Church of Christ, Marietta, where Helen is a member of the Women's Guild.

Donegal marching band perfects football shows for fall presentations

More than 150 persons attended Donegal Band Camp activities at Shippensburg College last week; August 11 to 15. The band, which will perform for the first time this year on Friday, August 29, at the Columbia High School, perfected various selections for this fall's football shows. Routines will include Alexander's Ragtime Band, "Corduba," "What I Did For Love" and "Salute to the Promised Land."

Instructors for the 12th annual Band Camp were: Al Sacko, Boothwyn, PA, band drill instructor; Helena Sacko, Delaware, band front instructor; Stan Tucker, 1969 Donegal graduate, band front instructor; Gloria Foreman, 1972 Donegal grad, majorette coach; Walter Foltz, Elizabethtown, drum instructor; Joe Coover, 1978 Donegal grad, drum instructor; and Holly Baker, 1977 Donegal grad, woodwind instructor.

Erna Nissley serves as band front official, Georgeanne Westerman is color guard captain and Sherry Suter is head majorette and featured twirler.

Officers of the 1980-81 band are: Tish Barnitz, president; Donna Hay, vice president; Sherry Frey, secretary - treasurer; and Kaye Wolgemuth, historian.

Chaperones for the week-long event were Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKain, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hess, Mary Kershner and Helen Erb. Kathy Hart and Sharon Marley were camp nurses.
