Russell and Esther Sumpman, 128 Mount Joy St., Mount Joy, enjoyed a musical tribute in honor of their 59th wedding anniversary. The couple, along with over 100 friends, relatives and acquaintances, listened to the New Holland Band in the Sumpman's back yard.

The tribute was organized by Sumpman's son, Russell Jr., a 34-year member of the band.

Many of the 48 band members became friends with the Sumpmans when the couple attended concerts. Because of Russell's ill health they have not been able to attend the events in recent years.

The couple, lifelong residents of Mount Joy, has three children: Russell Jr., Columbia; Madeline, wife of Carl Peiffer, Elizabethtown; and Roy, Washington, D.C.; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Both are retired from the former Mount Joy handkerchief factory.
