Cross Roads Church presents Liberation '80

Liberation '80, a young music team now touring North America, will present a program of music and testimonies at the Cross Roads Brethren in Christ Church, Thursday evening, September 4, at 7:30. The six African musicians, who come from four different African countries, represent Youth for Christ International. Liberation's program is intended to communicate the group's attitudes toward Christ. All six are skilled musicians and use guitars, trumpet and electric rhythm box, along with their voices, to produce a smooth gospel sound. Liberation members are high school or college graduates and they are all experienced performers. Their music includes a few songs in African dialects, French and German, but is primarily in English, the only common language among the team members. The program is sponsored by Missions Prayer Fellowship of the church.

Emergency CB club to hold 3rd meeting

An emergency CB club is now being formed in the local area. The group is looking for working members only, to provide help to law enforcement and fire protection agencies and to assist in the event of national, state or local emergencies. Members will also monitor channel 9, the CB emergency channel. The third meeting of the new club will be Thursday, August 28, 7:30 pm, at the Bainbridge Fire Hall. All interested, qualified persons are invited to attend. Phone 367-0862 for more information.

Marietta Senior Lg. to meet

The Marietta Senior League will hold its first meeting of the new fall season in the Marietta Community House on Tuesday, September 2, at 1:30 pm. Please note the change of day.
