KIDS AT SCHOOL?

Send them
the Susquehanna Times

$4.50 nine months

They don't want to leave home completely behind. While they're away at school, they'll want to keep up on how the old high school teams are doing. They'll want to know when their friends, relatives and neighbors are promoted at work, when they get married, when they receive awards, when they have new babies, and so on. Keep them up to date with a student subscription to the Susquehanna Times. (We have a special low student rate.)

YES, please rush the Susquehanna Times to the student listed below. I pay only $4.50 on this subscription which is good through May, 1980.

Majorettes get new uniforms

Donegal High School band majorettes show off new uniforms that were worn for the first time at Friday night's football game. The girls chose the pattern, designed the uniforms and had them made by Cindy Brinser, a Mount Joy seamstress. To earn money for the uniforms the majorettes sold Current Stationery. They also plan to sell crystal etchings as Christmas ornaments.

Majorette instructor is Gloria Foreman, and Glen N. Leib is director of the Donegal High School Band. Members of the majorette squad are, left to right, kneeling: Kim Derr, Scottie Maquire and Stephanie Mathiot. Standing are: Tammy Mohr, Gina Mohr, Lisa Hoffman, Joan Garber [assistant head majorette], Pam Barton, and, in white, Sherry Suter, head majorette and feature twirler.
