It seemed as if each week for the next three years Timothy was back at the Red Cross office in Lancaster with yet another form to be completed. This situation continued until May 1, 1980 when Timothy's dream of sponsoring his pen pal became a reality. The news came through: "Lillie" was on her way!

After arriving in the U.S., Ha Tieu Diem decided to be known as Christina Ho in order to express her appreciation to God for helping her through the difficulties of leaving Vietnam.

The story did not end with Christina's arrival in the U.S., however. On July 5 Timothy and Christina were united in marriage at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 29 East Main Street, Mount Joy.

Among the attendants in the wedding party was Elaine Vu, the first baby born at the Indiantown Gap resettlement center in 1975. The friends Tim made at the "Gap" in 1975 were eager to welcome a fellow emigrant to a new land. Timothy and Christina's five long years of waiting and hoping, aided by the efforts of the Red Cross caseworkers, paid off.

at Pottstown Junior High School since January 1979.

Mrs. Linda F. Kinzer
 Mrs. Kinzer comes to Donegal as a high school English teacher. She is a graduate of Longwood College, VA, with a B.A. in English. She also has her M.S. degree in Guidance from Old Dominion University, VA. She spent the past nine years teaching English in Oscar Smith High School, Chesapeake, VA. Mrs. Kinzer moved to the Lancaster area this past June when she was married.

Mr. Reid Lauderman
 Mr. Lauderman is one of the new math teachers at the high school. He received his Bachelor's degree in math education from Millersville State College and his M.A. in theology from Oliver Nazarene College, Ill. Mr. Lauderman is a graduate of Warwick High School where he played baseball, football and basketball. He spent the last year as a pastor of a church in the Lehigh, PA, area. The father of one child is currently residing in Lititz.

A standard, multi-media first aid course was held at the Pioneer Fire Company in Marietta September 2 and 3, 6 to 10 each night. 24 people took the course, including 17 from Marietta, one from Columbia, two from Maytown, and four from Mount Joy. Included were 12 firemen from Marietta's Pioneer Fire Co. who were supplementing their fire fighting training with the first aid course. The ARC sponsored course was instructed by Steve Bailey who was assisted by Annette Raber. Above, students practice various first aid techniques on one another.

Mr. William Chase
 Mr. Chase is also at the high school. He teaches social studies, having obtained his degree from Indiana University of PA. Mr. Chase is serving as an assistant football coach in the high school this year. He participated in college football and high school football and wrestling. Mr. Chase is married to a social studies teacher.
