Election at St. John's

The women of St. John's Episcopal Church, Marietta, opened the fall session by electing a new slate of officers.

The Vicar of St. John's announced that the church school will start September 14 at 10 am. All children from pre-school age to high school are welcome to attend. Installation of church school teachers will take place at the family service on the first day.

Father Aristede Red also announced that the Parish Vestry will meet for the first time this season on Monday, September 15, at 7 pm.

Former members of the Zion choir are invited to attend any or all services and will join the current vocalists in singing "Great God and God of Our
