Erica Nissley as she leads the Donegal High School Band at last Friday's football game.

Senior Erica Nissley is band Drum Major

Erica Nissley, a senior at Donegal High School, has been selected as the Drum Major of the Band for the current school year.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Nissley, Mount Joy, Erica is enrolled in the academic course at Donegal and hopes to major in Physical Therapy or Social Welfare upon completion of high school.

She has one sister who is enrolled in Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing.

Erica began playing flute in fourth grade and learned to play the bassoon when she entered the high school band. She attended a camp for Drum Majors at Millersville State College this summer and is very enthusiastic about that experience. "You learn to know more people and earn a lot of experience when attending a camp like that," she says.

Erica is looking forward to leading Donegal's marching band this year. The year's events include parades, football games, and the possibility of some competitions. A spring concert is also presented by the concert band.

Marietta Aux. to Co. Hospital
holds meeting

The Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital held a luncheon meeting at the Colonial Inn recently, with Mrs. Herbert Sarver conducting the business session.

The schedule of the year's upcoming meetings was distributed and projects were tentatively planned.

A public pinochle party will be held Wednesday, October 22, at 8 pm in the Marietta Community House. A Christmas luncheon benefit will be held at the home of Mrs. Sarver December 1, 12:30 pm. Monies from these events will be used to pay off the pledge made by the group for hospital equipment.

The October 13 meeting will be held at the home of Miss Ruth Wisman with Mrs. Robert Heby serving as co-chairperson.

The November session will be held at Nissley Vineyards with Mrs. William Heisey, Mrs. George Houseal and Miss Mary Carroll as co-hostesses.

Other meetings will be February 9, March 9, April 13 and May 11. All meetings are at 1:30 pm unless otherwise designated.
