Flowers need care

Dear Folks:

As a resident of Mount Joy and a flower grower I naturally notice the flower boxes in the town. I walk the streets of Mount Joy daily, especially to the Post Office, and I pass the flower boxes provided by the Rotary Club (with their symbols on the boxes) and filled by Ruhl's Flower Shop. It's been a hot summer. Therefore, the plants needed water and care.

On the opposite side of the street the boxes got care and look good. The flowers on the north side, however, are dying and naturally look bad.

All of us want Mount Joy to look its best, because we live here.

Thank you for your courtesy.

'September Fest' at Central Hotel

A "September Fest" sponsored by A. Bube's Brewery & Catacombs, a member of Friendly Lancaster County West, will be held at the Central Hotel, 102 North Market Street in Mount Joy, on Saturday, September 27.

The "Fest" will start at 2:30 pm and last as long as the guests wish. Jimmy Schmidt's German Band will entertain, there will be a German food stand provided by the Mount Joy Historical Society, and there will be a multitude of other attractions such as antiques, bottles, etc.

Tickets may be purchased for $5 at the Central Hotel, the Brewery, or at 133 East High Street in Elizabethtown. Attendance is limited to people over 21 years of age. Rain date is September 28.

Register to vote

If you live in the Marietta or East Donegal Township voting district and would like to vote in the Nov. 4 election but are not registered, you can remedy this very easily.

All you need is a post card registration form which can be obtained from your local post office or by calling Republican Committee woman Jayne Howell, Marietta 426-2189, or Doris White, East Donegal Township 426-1690.

The final day for registration is Oct. 6.

Maytown Aux. to Amer. Legion holds meeting

The Maytown American Legion Auxiliary Unit #809 met at the home of Mrs. William Smith, Maytown, on September 8 at 7:30 pm with the president, Sara Gutshall, presiding.

The members voted to help in the renovation of the Legion home by donating the refrigerator and air conditioner. It was announced that another donation will be made at a later date.

A committee was appointed to purchase gifts for shut-ins at Thanksgiving. A discussion was held on assisting other organizations in Maytown.

Mrs. Alice Leas, past president, was presented a gift from the unit for a job "well done" last year.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Michael Drace, High Street, Maytown. All members are welcome.

"CARK"

Speaking of four-lettered words,
There's one in every dictionary
That should be yanked out, put to work
By every Tom and Dick and Harry.

The word is spelled: C, A, R, K.
It means "the care you're giving
To the green-backed folding stuff it takes
To pay for decent living."

So worry on, my worthy friend,
And may God save the mark.
If anyone asks, "What's the matter?"
Say, "I've got the cark."

CAMPING VACATION

Dear is that wished-for time of the year
Ere the autumn leaves are beginning to fall,
When work is forgot and the way made clear
For those bent on getting away from it all.

We pack our bags and boxes and cases;
We flee from the comfort of our homes
To camp in the wildest and woodsiest places
With spiders, mosquitoes and gnats and gnomes.

Since we are the thralls of convenience
Due preparation needs must be attended;
Therefore and since we'll be living in tents,
This camper's schedule of "musts" is appended:

- Roadmap and Camper's Guide.
- Tent, pegs, hammer and nails.
- Jack, crowbar, rope and twine.
- Hiking shoes and binoculars.
- Raincoat and galoshes.
- Flash light and bottle opener.
- Radio and card table.
- Collapsible chairs.
- Rotisserie and charcoal.
- Pillows and blankets.
- Merthiolate and band aids.
- Sunburn lotion and shaving cream.
- Cigarettes and matches.
- Coffee and coffee-pot.
- Frying pan and ladle.
- Paper plates and napkins.
- Knives, forks and spoons.
- Ice-tea mix and thermos bottle.
- Dog food for Fido.

This, you'll agree, is a practical issue.
Who ever said that you can't take it with you?
