The movie Tough Men at Cong. Bible Church

Tough Men, a new motion picture, will be shown at the Congregational Bible Church, Marietta, on Sunday, September 21, at 7 pm. Tough Men was filmed entirely on location in the wilderness country of Alaska and contains some beautiful scenery from the northern state. Tough Men is not a travelogue, however. It is, as the title states, the story of two men who pit their strength against the stark elements of nature and emerge the winners.

The story begins the day before hunting season with Pappy, a tough hunter who knows where the big moose grow. He hires a bush pilot to fly him, a friend Corky, and his Bassett hound, Boulder Jack, into the Alaskan out-back. Pappy's stubborn refusal to tell anyone where they are going prevents the pilot from filing a flight plan.

Leaving them at their destination, the pilot promises to return the next day with more supplies. There is, however, a fiery plane crash, and after several days Pappy realizes the plane will not return and that no one knows where they are. A tragic fire robs them of their tent, food supply and guns, leaving them only a handful of matches, a small New Testament, and hip-deep snow blocking their trek home.

With cold, hunger, and uncharted miles of snow covered wilderness before them, and a pack of howling timber wolves trailing them, the two men live out a rare adventure story.

The film was produced by Skyline Productions and is a Gospel Films Inc. release. The public is invited.
