Ronda Matheny, David Derr Room 50 girl & boy of month

Ronda Matheny and David Derr have been elected girl and boy of the month for room #50 at the Riverview Elementary School.

Ronda, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Matheny, Marietta, is a considered a good citizen by her classmates. She works quietly, listens to her teachers, has good manners, plays fairly and helps others. Assisting her parents and baby sitting, she does her best at all times.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Derr, Marietta, and he is also a good citizen. He helps his mother clean and carries wood for his father. He sits tall in his seat while at school, works quietly, is polite, and solves problems easily.

David hopes to become a cub scout in the near future.

Chiques co-ed volleyball changes format, rules

The Chiques A.A.A. Co-Ed Volleyball league has changed its format for the upcoming season, so that the league will be more balanced and competitive.

Some of the changes are:
1. The rule which states that players must live within ten miles of Marietta has been dropped. (It is now an open league). 2. All players names shall be drawn to form teams. Couples can be drawn as well as individuals. 3. Each team will be limited to four men and four women.

The first meeting for individuals or couples for registration will be Thursday, September 25, at 7 pm, Marietta Community House, 264 West Market Street.
