Hollis Baker

Hollis Baker will present senior recital

Miss Hollis Dee Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, Fairview Avenue, Marietta, will present a senior recital Sunday, October 12, at 3 pm in Rider Hall, Elizabethtown College.

A student of Professor Otis Kitchen, Miss Baker is presently student teaching at Manheim Central High School. The Donegal graduate participated in band, stage band, rhythm singers, county, district and regional bands for three years, and county chorus. She was vice president of the senior high band.

Her college letters include concert band, jazz band, concert choir and chorale. She is also a member of the Elizabethtown chapter of the Music Educators National Conference.

Included in the Sunday repertoire are several selections to be performed on the baritone saxophone, alto saxophone and a saxophone quartet. Accompanying Miss Baker on the piano will be Allen Artz, a senior music education major from Llewellyn, PA.

Janet Villano, a music therapy major, will assist in the performing duet. A special quartet will feature Donegal senior Ann Eichlerly and two Donegal graduates, Kenneth McCoy and Lauralee Baker, in addition to Holly.

The public is invited to attend this free recital.
