

Did You Hear?

§§§

Sandy Heisey, the Mount Joy songbird playing the part of "Mrs. Molloy" in Columbia Little Theater's musical, "Hello, Dolly!" did double duty in that production for several performances recently.

When Janet Walker, in the lead role of Dolly, lost her singing voice for two performances, Sandy stood behind the curtain and sang Janet's songs while Janet went through the motions of acting her part.

Sandy did all the singing of Janet's role on very short notice—a couple of hours—and also played her own role of Mrs. Molloy.

Sandy's mother, Zelda Heisey, was speechless with amazement at her daughter's Herculean performance. Honest!
