

Mount Joy Welcome Wagon plans season of activities

The Mount Joy Welcome Wagon Club opened the fall session with a September 19 meeting at Stonebridge Farm Butcher Shop. President Doris Landers conducted the meeting.

Gail Huff will serve as club treasurer for the remainder of the 1980-81 year, due to the resignation of Pat Neher.

Other officers for the year are: Tia Guinivan, first vice president; Debbie Wilbert, second vice president; and Becky Strambaugh, secretary.

After the close of the business meeting, members enjoyed a meat cutting demonstration presented by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brubaker, owners of Stonebridge Farm.

Welcome Wagon members will join the Mount Joy Joyceettes on Tuesday, October 21, at 7 pm, in St. Marks United Methodist Church for a play by the Family and Children's Services of Lancaster.

The club extended a warm welcome to new members Wanda Long and Janet Dorfler.

The club will be busy this season with bi-monthly visits to the Schock Presbyterian Home, Mt. Joy. The members of the club will also conduct two book sales to benefit the library, collect toys for tots, prepare food baskets for needy families, and take part in numerous social and craft activities.

If you have just moved to the area, had a baby, or become engaged, and would like to receive a Welcome Wagon call, contact hostesses Cherie Dillow (653-1609) or Sue Binkle (653-2368).

BANK WITH FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

We're your Community Bank. We're locally owned and locally managed. We're not part of any large banking system. We're independent. We work for this area, and this area, alone.

Our employees both live and work in your community. When you use our bank you are being served by neighborhood people. It's our job to see that you receive individual attention, the kind of personal attention you would expect from a neighbor.

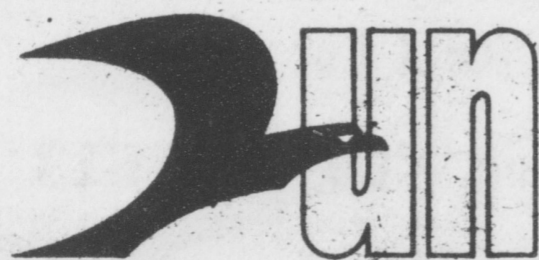

Our officers and directors are actively involved in local organizations and affairs. Our staff takes a personal interest in the financial well-being of each and every member of our community.

When you save with us, a good portion of your deposits are used for personal loans for home improvements, new cars, medical expenses, and more, to help all the people in our community.

A good portion of your deposits are used for commercial loans to help local businesses grow which, in turn, helps create local jobs. We supply mortgage and rebuilding money to revitalize our commercial and industrial areas.

As your Independent Community Bank, we put your money to work for a better local economy. We put your money to work for you.

BANK WITH US, YOUR INDEPENDENT COMMUNITY BANK.

DHS senior to take part in seminar

Donegal senior Ruthellen McMartin has been selected as a participant in the Pennsylvania Junior Science and Humanities Symposium to be held on the Penn State University campus at State College, November 2-4.

Participants will be housed at the Nittany Lion Inn on the campus.

Ruthellen is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Duncan K. McMartin, 801 Harvestview North, Mount Joy.

The symposium is conducted by the Penn State University in cooperation with the U.S. Army Research Office, The Academy of Applied Science, The Alcoa Foundation, Corning Glass Works, Bell Telephone of Penna. and HRB-Singer, Inc.

Objectives of the program are to:

Promote study and experimentation at the high school level and their applications; to emphasize the role of science and humanities in the national culture; to search out talented youth and their teachers; and to provide understanding and reinforcement of the concept that science and technology are servants of mankind.

The program will consist of lectures by science staff persons from Penn State and visiting scientists, presentation of scientific papers by participating students, tours and social events.

Ruthellen has been an award winner in the Donegal and County Science Fairs and plans to attend Grace College in Indiana to major in nursing or chemistry.
