Joel Sater is speaker for Marietta Lions Club

Joel Sater, editor and publisher of the Antique News, a publication circulated throughout the states on the Eastern seaboard, was the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Marietta Lions Club held recently.

Sater praised the Marietta Restoration Associates and the many individuals who have converted and restored property in the borough of Marietta. He is pleased that residents have opened various shops, invited tourists to visit the area and study local architecture. "All contributed to the uniqueness of Marietta," Sater told the group. Edgar Appley conducted the business session of the program, stating that three new members will be inducted into the club at the October 23 meeting.

Representatives from the Marietta Lions Club will attend the Lion Regional Rally to be held at Hostetter's Banquet Hall on October 30.

A workshop will be held on October 21 for the readying of the Christmas street lights to be installed November 23. This is an annual community project completed by the Marietta Lions Club.
