Mrs. Jeffrey L. Carl

Kimberly Ann Heisey bride of Jeffrey L. Carl

The marriage of Miss Kimberly Ann Heisey to Jeffrey Lynn Carl, 32 Glenbrook Drive, Spring Grove, took place Saturday, October 25, at 4 pm at the Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown with the Rev. Richard F. Michael officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Heisey, R.D.#2, Mount Joy. She graduated from Donegal High School in 1979.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton D. Carl, 101 Meade Avenue, Hanover. He is a 1974 graduate of Hanover High School and a 1978 graduate of Elizabethtown College. He is employed by Carlton Seed Company.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of organza over taffeta, featuring a high neckline and sheer yoke. The bodice was trimmed in Alencon lace and pearl clusters. The Bishop sleeves were also in Alencon lace. The A-line skirt had a deep double flounce at the hemline and flowed into a semi-cathedral length train.

A bridal picture hat was made of matching lace. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of silk gardenias, white roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath.

Mrs. Sandra Groff, sister of the bride, Mount Joy, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Barbara Gault, sister of the groom, Spring Grove; Miss Julie Shirk, Mount Joy. Junior bridesmaids were: Miss Susan Gault, niece of the groom, Spring Grove; and Miss Michelle Groff, niece of the bride, Mt. Joy.

Miss Tracee Groff, niece of the bride, Mount Joy, was flower girl. Michael Gault, nephew of the groom, Spring Grove, was ring bearer.

Serving as best man was Michael Wiest, Hummelstown.

Ushers were: David Heisey, brother of the bride, Mount Joy; Gary Gault, brother-in-law of the groom; and Charles Groff, brother-in-law of the bride, Mount Joy.

David Myers was organist.

Following a reception at Indian Springs, the couple took a wedding trip to Hawaii.

They will reside at 32 Glenbrook Drive, Spring Grove.

Marietta Lions Club

Charles Hershey, membership chairman of the Mount Joy Lions Club, served as induction officer for the Marietta Lions Club at its Thursday night dinner session at the Colonial Inn. New members installed were The Rev. Philip Lynch and Michael DeLucia.

Marietta president Edgar Appley conducted the business session of the meeting and activities for the upcoming year were discussed.

The club will arrange for a sale of brooms to take place this week. Proceeds from the sale will benefit the blind association.

The club also donated money to its sponsored Girl Scout Troop in Maytown.

Miss Patricia Brown to wed John Kalbach

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Brown, R.D.1, Mount Joy, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia Jean Brown, to John Paul Kalbach, 820 Rolridge Ave., Lancaster.

The bride-elect graduated from Donegal High School and Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. degree in business administration. She is employed by Totes, Inc., as inventory control coordinator.

Mr. Kalbach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Kalbach, Leesport. He graduated from Schuylkill Valley High School and Reading Area Community College with an associate degree in industrial management. He attends York College of Pennsylvania. He served in the U.S. Naval Reserve for nine years and is employed by Thonet Industries, York, as a product development engineer.

Chiques Volleyball opens its tenth season

On Sunday, October 19th the Chiques Co-Ed Volleyball League opened its 10th season with two matches at the Marietta Community Gym.

There were changes made in the league this season. The most important one is the league will be going back to playing four person volleyball. The league has played this type of volleyball several times in the past. It is a fast paced and exciting brand of volleyball.

Results for October 19th were: The Smashers defeated the Trojans two out of three games; 15-7, 15-4 and 12-15. The second match was the same, as the Spikers defeated the Raiders, 14-16, 15-12 and 15-9.

Standings	W. L.
Smashers	2 1
Spikers	2 1
Raiders	1 2
Trojans	1 2
