

Brownie Troop #29, Mount Joy, held a Halloween party at its meeting place, Grandview Elementary Cafeteria, and the girls were surprised with a Mexican "Pinata" filled with small gifts. The girls hit it with a stick until the covering was opened and the gifts spilled unto the floor. Members of the troop were in costumes, and refreshments were served.

Veterans' Day program at Donegal

Patriotic music, original drama and special scenic effects are all part of Donegal High School's 11th Annual Veteran's Day observance to be held Saturday, November 8, 1980, at 8:00 pm in the school's auditorium. Over 150 members of the high school band, chorus and Dramatics Club will pay tribute to the men and women of the Armed Services in a program coordinated by the Donegal Dramatics Club.

Members of the audience will be able to review the life of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry in the dramatization of a play penned especially for this year's performance by Donegal junior John Gibble. Cast members of the work "We Have Met the Enemy and They are Ours" include Jeffrey Way, Maxine Maxwell, Franklin Spence, Grace Snyder, Scott McMartin, Rebecca Corrigan and Robert Nadeau.

In a flashback sequence entitled "Profiles in Patriotism," written by junior student Christopher Hildebrandt, the audience will overhear conversation between General Edward Hand, George Ross and the minister of the Donegal Presbyterian Church during the Revolution. Cast members of this segment include John Gibble, Christopher Hildebrandt and Jeffrey Way.

A highlight of the program, compiled by Philip Landis, will be a multimedia presentation entitled "Lest We Forget," a tribute in words, music and photography to the men and women throughout American history who have answered their nation's call to duty. Historical figures including Woodrow Wilson, Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee will come "alive" at interludes during the slide presentation. Franklin Spence, Lynn Jenkins, Ellen Endslow, Christopher Hildebrandt, Randall Roaten, Stephen Kless, David Klepper and John Gibble comprise the dramatic cast for this segment.

Music for the occasion will be provided by the Donegal High School Band, the High School Chorus, and the Rhythm Singers. Honor soloist for the "God Bless America" solo will be senior Benjamin Synder, and the monologist for "The American's Creed" is La Tisha Barnitz.

Platform guests for the Veteran's Day performance will include members of the active military, community veterans, and representatives of local veterans' organizations. All veterans in the audience will be recognized collectively during the program, and certificates of appreciation will be given to each veteran in attendance.

The Saturday evening Veteran's Day performance is open to the public and is free of charge.

In addition to the Saturday evening performance, an in-school assembly will be held on Tuesday, November 11, at which time Congressman Robert Walker will be present.
