4-H alumni exchange

IFYE exchange programs provide an educational cross-cultural experience, help increase international understanding, give emphasis to the value of 4-H and similar programs and often assist in the development of youth programs throughout the world.

Participants live and work with host families, are involved with youth programs and enjoy the sights and sounds of other lands.

The Lancaster County IFYE Association is looking for 4-H alumni between the ages of 20-29 who are interested in applying for an international exchange experience. Contact the 4-H office (394-6851) for an application, or write to: Nancy Meyers, 4-H Agent, 1383 Arcadia Road, Room 1, Lancaster, Pa. 17601.

If you are a 4-H alumni and like international travel, don't miss this opportunity.

Farm Women's Society #8 meets

Farm Women's Society #8 met at the home of Alice Myers, Mount Joy RD, October 18 at 2 pm. President Kathryn Heisey was in charge.

The song "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung by the ladies, with Mrs. Miller accompanying on the piano. Kathryn Erb was in charge of devotions, with Scripture from The Corinthians being read, and thoughts and blessings that are ours in reference to Columbus Day were also recounted.

The seventeen members answered Roll Call by saying why each was glad to be an American. Anna Mae

Derr, Secretary, read the minutes of last month's meeting, and Hettie Ginder gave the Treasurer's report.

Four members—Hettie Ginder, Vera Frey, Sylvia Warfel, and Elizabeth Shuman sewed at the General Hospital earlier in the month with 195 new pieces sewn, plus the mending of other items.

The Nominating Committee gave the names of Kathryn Erb for President, and Arline Witman for Vice President, to assume duties in the next year.

Vera Cox gave an illustrated talk on Russia covering the culture, onion top domes, Cathedrals,

University of Moscow and the Olympic Building. In Ukraine the Unknown Soldier's Tomb, Botanical Gardens, Art Gallery, an opera concert, cobblestone streets were shown. Finland was noted for the churches, Finnish Architecture and their unique weaving.

Refreshments were supplied by Agnes Myers, Ruth Eby, Ethel Herr and Ada Kraybill.

November 1st is the date for the Convention at the Farm and Home Center.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Phyllis Endslo, Marietta R#1, November 15th, at 2 pm. This will be a musical program. Pauline Miller
