Mount Joy BPW club hears Jack W.W. Loose

Jack W. W. Loose, president of the Lancaster County Historical Society and chairman of Donegal High School Social Studies Department, was speaker for the October session of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club. The program was arranged by the Public Relations Committee, headed by Alice Marie Nissley.

Mr. Loose's subject was "Why Vote?"

"It is the duty of all citizens to vote," he said. "It is the best way to show good citizenship. Non-voters have no right to criticize, and unless we are a doormat we are all politicians."

Jody Weidman, daughter of club member Judy Weidman, entertained with her impression of "Annie" accompanied by her aunt, Mary Adams.

Georgiann Westerman, Donegal High School's girl of the month, was introduced by Mrs. John Wittle, a member of the personal development committee.

Mrs. John Fry, president of the Mount Joy BPW, conducted the business meeting and gave a report of the Fall District meeting held October 18 and 19 at York Valley Inn. Mrs. Robert Bookwalter, club treasurer, reported on the banquet. One new policy announced at the meeting was that men may now join BPW clubs. The objectives of the organization will remain the same.

An invitation to the Columbia BPW's 55th birthday party was read. The party was held at Hostetters on November 3.

It was announced that over 100 afghans have been completed for the senior citizen's Christmas project.

Mrs. Don Straub distributed tickets and brochures for the club's Candlelight Tour to be held Sunday, November 23, from 2 to 7 pm.

The Legislation committee is arranging for the November 24 meeting.

Trinity Lutheran Church Women plan "Kountry Fair" Nov. 14 & 15

The Lutheran Church Women of Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy, remind you that it won't be long 'til Christmas, and they can help you with gift ideas and suggestions at their third "Kountry Fair" to be held Friday, November 14, from 10 am to 9 pm, and Saturday, November 15, from 9 am to 2 pm in the Fellowship Hall of the West Main Street church.

The "Kiddies Korner" of the fair will include trimmings for the family tree as well as $1.00 gift items for all ages. The gift items include "frustration" pencils, magnetic owls, book worms and mice "party favors."

Other booths will feature ceramics, baked goods, homemade candies, fragrant herbs and spices, dried flower arrangements, crafts, sewing, creweling, knitting and attic treasures.

The "Kountry Kitchen" will open at 11 am on Friday and Saturday, serving homemade soups, beef bar-b-que, baked potatoes, hot dogs, and many "yummy" items from "Kalorie Korner." There will be no bulk sales from the kitchen until 1 pm Saturday.

Proceeds will benefit the new Scholarship Fund of Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy, and World Hunger Appeal.
