Marietta Lions plan to sell brooms

The Marietta Lions Club will conduct a door-to-door sale of brooms beginning Thursday, Nov. 20. The club will also be at the Farmer's First Bank on November 21, announced broom sale committee chairman Harry Pitenturf Jr. The profits from the project will be used for further contributions to the blind. Brooms will be priced at $5.75. The club will solicit in Maytown on Monday, November 24.

Lions President Edgar Appley and member Ronald Perry attended the District 14 Rally held in Mount Joy recently.

75 Lions from 20 different clubs were present at the rally whose theme was "Touch a Life with Hope."

District Governor Thomas Parry of Lebanon was presented a banner from Lion David Kettle of Perth, Australia, who is the Youth Exchange Director for the Lions' Clubs in the western region of that country. Three Australian youths, including Kettle's son, will be placed with Lancaster County families for three months beginning in December.

The main speaker at the meeting was Lion Gerald De Turk of Reading.

De Turk pointed out that Lions International is the world's largest service organization with 1,300,000 members in 30,000 clubs in 150 free world countries.

Farm Women's Society plans Christmas Party

Farm Women's Society #8 met at the home of Phyllis Endslo, Marietta R.D.1, at 2 pm November 15.

Twenty members attended. Secretary Anna Mae Derr read the minutes of the last meeting, and Hettie Ginder gave the treasurer's report.

A special program of music was presented by Stanley Dotterer and Laurie Williamson in the form of a violin duet. Alice Dourte played the piano and Mr. Dotterer played numerous songs on the organ.

Hostesses were Phyllis Endslo, Isabel Endslo, Esther Musser and Mary Grace Martin.

The Christmas Party will be held at the home of Vera Frey on December 20 at 6:30 pm. Husbands and friends will be entertained. Each member will provide a place setting and one hot and one cold dish.
