Congressman Bob Walker will be in the area soon via his Mobile Office. On Wednesday, December 3, he will be at the post office in Mount Joy from 1:30 to 3:30 pm.

He will be in Bainbridge on Monday, December 8, from 10 am to 12 noon, and Maytown, on the same day, from 1:30 to 3:30 pm.

To avoid any inconvenience to you, the Postmaster will be notified if the Mobile Office is not at its designated Post Office location due to mechanical failure or circumstances beyond the control of Congressman Walker.

Paula Rusnock

Seiler's Paula Rusnock named guard of month

Paula Rusnock, a sixth grade student at Seiler Elementary School, Mount Joy, has been named that school's crossing guard of the month.

Paula is the daughter of Frank and Pat Rusnock, 224 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy.

She guards at New Street, and she feels she is a good crossing guard because she is courteous to the students.

Paula's favorite subjects are gym and math, in that order, and she says she likes to play sports of any kind.

She has one brother and one sister.
