Desiree Fisher

Matt Wise

Mrta. students honored

Desiree Fisher and Matt Wise have been named girl and boy of the month in room #50, Riverview Elementary School.

Desiree, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, Donegal Place, Marietta, is a good citizen with good manners. She listens attentively while the librarian reads, and she plays fairly.

She helps her mother with home chores, and takes care of her baby sister and brother.

nastic lessons she takes each Saturday, Chinese jump rope and tether ball.

Matt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wise, Chestnut Street, Marietta. Matt is both a good citizen and a good sport, obeying rules and being nice to others. He shares games and toys and helps his friends whenever he can.

He enjoys riding his bike safely and helping his younger sister. Matt also helps his mother so that she can study her college assignments.

The Joseph Stradlings are married fifty years

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Stradling, 267 Park Avenue, Mount Joy, were honored by a family dinner Saturday evening at Three Center Square, Maytown, and a surprise card shower, given by their children in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

The couple was married on November 29, 1930, in the Bensalem Methodist Church, Bensalem, PA., by the late Rev. W. H. Williams.

They are the parents of two children, Lt. Col. J. Wayne, Marietta, Ga., and Elizabeth, wife of James Sarbaugh, Mount Joy. They have four grandchildren.

The Stradlings are members of Chiques United Methodist Church. Mr. Stradling is a member of the Mount Joy Lions Club. He has been a Lions Club member for the last 41 years. He is also a member of Lodge #427, F. & A.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Stradling are natives of Langhorne, Bucks County, Pa., where they were farmers and also owned an Allis Chalmers tractor agency. In 1955 they moved to Maryland, where they were the owners and managers of Temco Parts Co., Chestertown, Md., until their retirement in 1973.

They moved to Mount Joy in 1978.

Former Marietta res. wins pageant trophy

Amy Louise Showalter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Showalter Jr., former residents of Marietta, won the "Miss Congeniality" trophy at the 26th annual Miss Solanco Pageant. The event, sponsored by the school, was held at Solanco High School last Saturday night.

Winner of the contest was Mary Ellen Lindcamp. Donna DeLong was first runner-up, and Kimberly Woodrow was second runner-up.

Environmental Resources;
a Lancaster County Agent;
and an engineering consultant.

Local farmers and interested property owners are also invited. The meeting is open to the public in general.

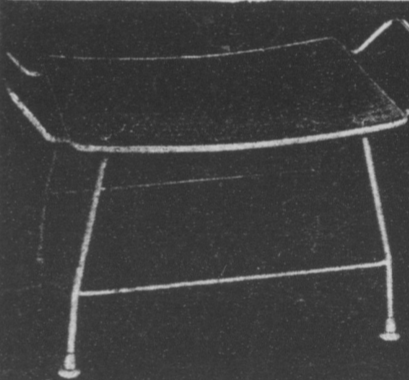

The Authority intends to make available information about sludge removal from their plant, the valuable use of the sludge to farmers, incorporation of the sludge into the soil, application procedures, and the environmental impact within the community.
