Marietta Lions hear Terrence Shope, broom sale progress, at last meeting

The Marietta Lions, at their last monthly meeting, listened to club secretary Terrence Shope describe his experiences while working as a surveyor in Israel for the past year. His surveying job was in preparation of an air field to be built by the United States. More than a billion dollars are being used for the construction.

Lion president Edgar Appley conducted the business meeting, and Harry Pittenturf, Jr., reported 136 brooms sold thus far in the door-to-door broom project.

The next meeting of the Lions will be held Thursday, January 6, with the Elizabethtown Lions at Hostetters Banquet Hall in Mount Joy. All members are urged to attend.

The annual Ladies' Night

will be held Thursday, January 22, when each woman attending will receive a token from the club.
