Donegal Mutual Insurance Co. will reduce auto coverage rates

Donegal Mutual Insurance Co. of Marietta plans to pass on an eight percent auto insurance rate decrease to its customers.

The decrease, available because drivers are traveling fewer miles, will take effect February 1.

The reason for the decrease is Gov. Thornburgh's cutting of some red tape.

Donegal's 40,000 insured vehicles will have all coverages except personal injury protection reduced 8.2 percent. This means an average savings of $35 per

Jeweler Earl Koser, Mount Joy, scares burglars from his home

Earl Koser, Mount Joy, scared burglars away from his residence early Sunday morning.

Koser's 64 East Main St. residence also houses his jewelry store.

The would-be burglars pried open an outside basement door, used a basement stairway to the Koser residence and tried to pry open another door. When they could not pry it open, they forced the door, shattering the frame.

This noise was heard by Koser who went downstairs just in time to see two individuals run out a side door. They ran through the yard to an alley at the rear of the home.

Telephone lines to the home had been cut.

United Telephone Co. receives rate increase

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission by unanimous vote of all members present in a public session on December 18 has approved an administrative law judge decision recommending that United Telephone of Pennsylvania be allowed to make rate changes that raise the local service rates of all customers. The average residential customer's bill increases about 2 cents per day or approximately 8%. This across-the-board increase in local rates is United's first such increase in almost six years during which time the consumer price index has [continued on page 7]

JCs look for outstanding citizen

The Mount Joy Jaycees will present their annual Distinguished Service Award (DSA) on Saturday, January 24, 1981, at 6:30 pm. The award presentation will be made at the Jaycees DSA Banquet which will be held at Hostetter's Dining Hall, Mount Joy.

Each year the organization and citizens of Mount

Joy are invited to participate in the selection of the award winner by submitting nominations. A panel of judges, consisting of Jaycees, members of various organizations, and citizens of Mount Joy, reviews the nominations and chooses the recipient.

The nominee must be between the ages of 18 and 36, a resident of Mount Joy or have a Mount Joy mailing address, and a volunteer of his talents, ideas, labor, and contributions to the betterment of the community during the last year.

Nominations can be submitted by contacting Ralph Spayd, School Lane, Mount Joy, or by calling 653-2216. Nominations should be submitted by January 3, 1981.
