

CHARRICK WESTBROOK.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Printing Office—Front Street, opposite Barr's Hotel. Publication Office—Locust Street, opposite the P. O.

EDINBURGH QUARTERLY.

PROSPECTUS OF THE EDINBURGH QUARTERLY MAGAZINE OF MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL SCIENCE. Volume I. for 1848—American edition—Geo. G. and R. W. Johnson, New York.

CAUTION.

THE public are hereby cautioned against taking any notice of the notices given by the publisher to a certain Solomon Corner, of Adams county, dated about the latter part of February, 1848, payable in sixty days after date.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

IN THE MATTER OF THE intended application of J. H. BOYLE, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, at the April Term, 1848, for license to keep a tavern in the Borough of Columbia, it being an old stand.

WE, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Columbia, in which said tavern is proposed to be kept, do certify that the said tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that we are well acquainted with the said Hugh Boyle, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber having disposed of his stock of Merchandise, and consequently declining business, hereby notifies all those indebted to him to call and settle on their accounts, and those having claims against him to present them without delay.

Poetry.

ON JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

From the Christian Repository. BY REV. WILLIAM BARNES. While heroes deck'd with laurel'd fame, On victory's field are crown'd, Great Adams claims a nobler theme For fame's loud trumpet's sound.

Select Tale.

CUTTING AN OLD FRIEND.

BY HENRY G. LEE.

Many years ago, the good ship Cleopatra arrived in Baltimore with a hundred steerage passengers from the Emerald Isle. Among the number were two young men from Tyrone, who had married just on the eve of sailing, and had come with their buxom brides to seek their fortunes in America.

more really united than they had yet been, and as both were required to be much from home, a small house was taken between them, and their families united, in order to lessen expense.

With three hundred dollars, shrewdness, industry, and economy, in personal and family expenses, success in the "grocery and liquor" business was a thing certain. Six years from the day Leary put up his sign he sold out his shop and commenced a new business, a wholesale and retail grocery in general, but rum and whiskey in particular, on Bowley's wharf. He was then worth some ten or fifteen thousand dollars, and deemed it but due to his increased importance as a merchant, to assume a style of living rather more imposing than the back rooms and second stories of a grog-shop.

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses. France has its house of Bourbon, Prussia that of Brandenburg, Austria that of Hapsburg, and England, after trying a number of dynasties, has, for two hundred years been ruled by the house of Hanover, represented in a race of Guelfs.

"She says her name is O'Shane."

"Tell her I'm not at home." "The servant went back to the parlor. "Mrs. Leary is not at home," he said. "But you told me," returned Mrs. O'Shane, "that she was at home."

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses. France has its house of Bourbon, Prussia that of Brandenburg, Austria that of Hapsburg, and England, after trying a number of dynasties, has, for two hundred years been ruled by the house of Hanover, represented in a race of Guelfs.

YANKEE TURNED TURK.

A correspondent of Noah's Saturday Times, who lately travelled in Egypt, relates the following amusing incident of Yankee enterprise:

We soon found ourselves in the desert, traversing seas of sand. The weather was exceedingly pleasant, and the heat was not so oppressive as was apprehended. We had an agreeable party, and did not grumble at whatever privations we encountered. Early on the second day, after camping among ruins, and in hearing of the howl of a solitary hyena—a not very pleasant sound—we saw, at a distance, what appeared to be a shanty near a small clump of palm trees. It was a wretched affair, but on a oasis in the desert, and very far from any other habitation, it was a relief.

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses. France has its house of Bourbon, Prussia that of Brandenburg, Austria that of Hapsburg, and England, after trying a number of dynasties, has, for two hundred years been ruled by the house of Hanover, represented in a race of Guelfs.

YANKEE TURNED TURK.

A correspondent of Noah's Saturday Times, who lately travelled in Egypt, relates the following amusing incident of Yankee enterprise:

We soon found ourselves in the desert, traversing seas of sand. The weather was exceedingly pleasant, and the heat was not so oppressive as was apprehended. We had an agreeable party, and did not grumble at whatever privations we encountered. Early on the second day, after camping among ruins, and in hearing of the howl of a solitary hyena—a not very pleasant sound—we saw, at a distance, what appeared to be a shanty near a small clump of palm trees. It was a wretched affair, but on a oasis in the desert, and very far from any other habitation, it was a relief.

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses.

The governments of Europe make a great parade and wonderful display of pomposity in relation to reigning houses. France has its house of Bourbon, Prussia that of Brandenburg, Austria that of Hapsburg, and England, after trying a number of dynasties, has, for two hundred years been ruled by the house of Hanover, represented in a race of Guelfs.