Governor Stone has approved the following bills: Providing for the immediate printing and distribution of advance sheets of laws of this Commonwealth as they are enacted from time to time. To prevent the importation and sale of dressed carcasses of lamb and sheep with the hoofs on. Relating to the collection of city, school and poor taxes in the cities of third class, and providing that the City Treasurers of such cities shall be the collectors of these taxes. To provide for the registration of labels, trade-marks, trade names, stamps, designs, devices, shop marks, terms, brands, designations, descriptions or forms of advertisement and to protect and secure the rights, property and interest therein of the persons, co-partnerships or corporations adopting and filing the same. The supplemental bill to the act governing cities of the second class, known as the Pittsburg "ripper."

John Korn, one of the carpenters who returned to work in Drifton shops, Hazleton, was kidnapped by strikers and held a prisoner for twenty-four hours, when he promised to give up work and was released. The abduction was a bold one. Several men entered the house and took Korn from his bed and placed him in a wagon and drove off. The kidnaped man was under the special protection of two armed officers, but the guards fell asleep and the man was spirited away without the men discovering the fact.

The National Fire-proofing Company, composed chiefly of local capital, is to absorb most of the independent manufacturers east of Pittsburg. Its capital will be increased to $5,000,000 and its capacity will be doubled. Among the plants to be absorbed will be those of the International Fire Clay Company, at Perth Amboy, N. J., the New York & New Jersey Fireproofing Co., and the Raritan Hollow Company.

The commencement and class day exercises of the Cheltenham High School at Ashbourne, were held in Ashbourne Presbyterian Church. Addresses were made by Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, rector of Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Philadelphia; Rev. J. Thompson Cole, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, of Cheltenham, at Ogontz, and Rev. Richard Montgomery pastor of Ashbourne Presbyterian Church. The Junior response was made by Mary F. Coonahan.

The Carnegie Museum, Pittsburg, received from Mrs. Jennie E. Joy, of Philadelphia, a cane made from the wood of the Confederate ram Merrimac. The cane is surmounted by a silver handle representing a cannon, and a silver strap, giving an account of the stick, is wound about its upper end.

The annual class day and commencement exercises of the Jenkintown High School were held in Masonic Hall. Rev. William Scott Nevins, pastor of Abington Presbyterian Church, delivered the address, and the diplomas were presented by the president of the school board.

R. E. Bower, an insurance collector, of Catasauqua, has mysteriously disappeared, and it is feared that he has met with foul play. His accounts with the company are straight. Bower is 27 years of age and has been prominent in church and temperance work. Last fall he was the Prohibition candidate for Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Andrew Carnegie has sent word to two more churches in Greensburg county that they can have pipe organs at his expense, the cost to be in keeping with the architecture of the buildings. These churches are the Methodist Episcopal, of Scottsdale, and the Reformed Church at Greensburg.

Guido Prescott, employed as water carrier for the men building the Marysville end of the Rockville bridge, was almost torn to pieces by dynamite. The lad was in front of a blast that was about to explode, not having been warned of his danger. One arm and a leg were blown off.

Hon. Michael M. Gloy died in Archbald. He was a lifelong Republican and in 1884 was elected to the State Legislature from the fourth district of this county.

Charles S. Richmond, of Girardville, aged 70 years, is dead. He was at one time district superintendent for the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company.

Oliver Jackson, aged over 75 years, of West Chester, was rescued from drowning at an old quarry hole near there. He was almost dead when discovered, but it is thought he will recover. How Jackson got into the water is not known.

Cement Houses.

The construction of cement houses is under consideration in Pittsburg, where the millions of tons of furnace slag produced every year could thus be utilized. It has been shown that this slag can be converted into cement by known processes at a less cost than the $1 a barrel suggested by Mr. Edison as the result of an invention on which he is experimenting. This cement, it is claimed, can be made fully equal to the best that is known as Portland, although a lower and a cheaper grade would suffice for house construction. Pulverized and mixed with lime, the slag has been converted into a superior plaster, showing a tensile strength greater than the ordinary sand and lime. Cement made from the slag would not only be economical for house construction, but would make practically fireproof buildings. Such use of a product now wasted, or used only to fill ravines would also be preservative of the forests.

Failed to Find.

Retort of a little boy to an attorney in a justice's court not long ago had some amusement. The lad, before the stand as a witness, was questioned concerning a certain dime which, alleged to have been stolen. "What was pictured on the cover?" asked the attorney. "Two Indians," was the reply. "What were the Indians doing?" "I didn't ask em," answered the boy.

At the Horse Show.

De Witt—I've been reading "Black Beauty." It's a sympathetic story of the horse—
Blugore—O! Yes, everybody's heard of that book. In our family it is second only to the Bible.
De Witt—Well, I don't wonder. It's a sort of sermon on the mount.

His Pa Explains.

Bobby—Pa, when does a man get too old to learn?
Father—When he gets too old to marry, my son.—Puck.

"THE VILLAGE GROCER."

(With due apologies to H. W. Longfellow.)

Under a spreading chestnut tree
The corner grocery stands,
The grocer—mighty man is he
With hard and sinewy hands,
That weigh out goods from morn till night,
And also coffee brands.

His goods are varied in their price
And quality as well,
The store itself looks neat and nice,
As all his neighbors tell.
And his one great ambition is
To LION COFFEE sell.

Week in, week out, from morn till night,
You'll hear this fellow blow
About his coffee, always right,
The LION brand, you know;
Because it's pure and honest goods
He tries to make it go!

Not only is it pure and good,
But also very cheap.
Because 'tis best for household use,
A stock he'll always keep.
In LION COFFEE thus his faith
Is both sincere and deep.

Buying—rejoicing—wondering,
His customers attest
That LION COFFEE is, by far,
In quality the best,
And the premiums also are admired
And always in request.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fail to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have by simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).
