Big Chestnut Crop.

Judging from present indications, the prospects are for a very large chestnut crop this year. Wherever trees are visible they present a beautiful appearance with their many blossoms. Many of the farmers throughout the country will harvest an immense crop if nothing interferes.

Living With Their Uncle.

Henry Palm, of Newtown, is caring for four children of John Edwards, who was murdered at Stouchburg on July 3. He visited his sister, Mrs. Edwards, in prison at Reading, on Monday, to learn where he could find clothing for the children.

HORSE'S FATAL KICK

The Victim a Well Known Young Farmer of Mount Joy Township.

Martin H. Risser, a young farmer residing about one mile east of Elizabethtown, was kicked by a horse on Monday evening and sustained injuries which resulted fatally.

On Monday evening while Mr. Risser was leading a horse to water the animal kicked, and he was struck in the face by the hoof. The man's face was badly crushed and his skull fractured. Dr. A. C. Treichler, of Elizabethtown, attended the injuries, and hope was entertained of saving the man's life until within about an hour before he died, when he was seized with convulsions. His death occurred at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The deceased was a son of Martin N. Risser, a prominent farmer and resident of Milton Grove. He was twenty-four years old and was only married last fall to Miss Lizzie Herley of Mount Joy township. The couple went to housekeeping in the spring on a farm formerly owned by James Watson, near Elizabethtown. Mr. Risser was a popular young man with a large circle of friends who will regret to learn of his tragic death. He now survives, as do the following brothers and sisters: Kate, wife of Amos Coble, of Dauphin county; Ella, wife of Harry B. Horst, of Lebanon; Lizzie, wife of Martin Ebersole, of West Donegal township, Abram, Jacob, Menno and Elam, at home.

IN DISTANT PLACES.

Konigsberg, Prussia, has an amber museum valued at 305,000 marks.

Venice has a cafe which has been opened day and night for 150 years. New Zealand has in its eidelweiss a plant differing but slightly from the famous Swiss variety.

In 6 per cent. of the north Italian and 18 per cent. of the south Italian villages the streets are still used as sewers.

According to the anthropologist, Alfredo Niefore, a north Italian differs less from a German than he does from a Sicilian.

Distilling seems to be profitable in Russia. A Moscow firm, "Widow Popova," has distributed $1,200,000 rubles as dividends for the year 1900 on a capital of 300,000 rubles.

The street-car conductors in Wiesbaden are subject to fines for breach of regulations. For driving too fast a fine of 30 pfennigs (6 cents); for talking to other employes, 50 pfennigs (11 cents) and for not waiting for trailer connection 20 pfennigs (4 cents). Notwithstanding these fines the Wiesbaden street-car service leaves much to be desired.

Taxation in Norway is becoming oppressive, and living expensive in proportion. An example will illustrate this: Two banks having the same capital and doing about the same amount of business pay taxes at the rate of 6,000 and 65,000 kroner ($1,440 and $15,740) per annum respectively. The former of these two institutions is in central Europe, the latter in Norway.

HOT WEATHER SENSE.

Walk slowly. Carry a sun umbrella if it adds to your comfort.

Follow the shady side of the street where possible.

Don't eat heartily of meats—it is like putting coal in the furnace.

Don't hurry. There is more "heating up" in three minutes of haste than in an hour of leisurely proceeding.

Cut the acquaintance of the thermometer. Discourage talk about the weather, and if you must think of it—think of Peary!

In torrid weather wear clothing suitable to a torrid climate—as light and as little as the conventions and circumstances will permit.

Free perspiration seldom hurts anyone. The pores are nature's safety valves. It is "dry heat" or the sudden checking of the sweat that is dangerous.

Don't drink "cool" alcoholic beverages under the idea that they will reduce your temperature or that of the atmosphere. You are simply adding fuel to the fire. Paradoxical though it may sound, hot drinks are in the end often more cooling than cold drinks.

KNOWN IN OTHER LANDS.

The new prime minister of Japan, Viscount Katsura, distinguished himself in the Chinese war by winning one of the greatest fights, the battle of Kangwanai.

The duke of Cornwall, though born and bred in England, speaks the language with as decidedly German an accent as does his mother, while the king burrs his r's very oddly.

M. Paul Revoil, the new governor of Algeria, is 45 years of age and is a brother of the late George Revoil, the explorer of the Somali country. Originally he was a journalist.

Lord Dufferin, who has recently completed his seventy-fifth year, once referred to himself, on account of the numerous offices he has held, as "maid-of-all-work to British governments."

In a lawsuit now pending in Scotland to determine whether the late Sir W. Gulliffré Brooks, a millionaire banker, was domiciled in England or Scotland, a lawyer testified that in the last few years Sir William has made 200 wills.

FACTS FROM FRANCE.

Wine growers in France now send sample bottles of wine by parcel-post to individuals.

A French company has organized a new steamship line between Antwerp, Havre, Havana, Mexican ports and New Orleans.

France holds the record as a user of gold. She has coined 2,300 tons in the last 40 years, against 1,400 used by the English mint.

Paris' population according to the census just taken is 2,714,068, an increase of 149,104 over the last census. Paris is now over 700,000 behind New York.

The largest Mont de Pieté, or, as we designate it, pawnshop, in the world is probably that on the Boulevard Montmartre, Paris, which, it is said, receives in pledge over 1,000 watches every day.

A Mistake.

"That engagement of young Mr. Dolley and Miss Kittish is broken off." "What was the cause?" "Oh, Dolley put his foot in it, as usual."

"How?" "He was trying to pay her a compliment and said she'd been looking real pret' the last few days."—Detroit Free Press.

The cottages on the camp grounds are well occupied and there will be special services on Sunday morning.

Will Cassel and daughter Winnie of Mt. Joy, spent Sunday here.

The excellent work of last week has been continued during the present one. The weather has been rather disagreeable because of much rain but the attendance at the meetings has been large and the enthusiasm manifested has more than counterbalanced any disagreeable weather.

The Sunday services were very impressive. In the morning Dr. May delivered a very able sermon on the words "Mine Eyes have seen the King." The Sunday school in charge of Supt. Gibson of Lancaster was largely attended by the young people on the ground.

The work of this week has been very good indeed. Prof. Green gave another of his interesting talks on "Life's Musical Scale." Dr. N. C. Shaeffer gave an educational talk on Tuesday on the subject "Modes of Thinking." He spoke to the Chautauqua several times during the week. Miss Crawford gave a Browning recital on Tuesday afternoon.

The Imperial Hand-bell Ringers and Instrumentalists entertained the Chautauqua in two concerts. The people were charmed by the seventeen of the bells and the splendid execution of the performers.
