

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.
 At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
 Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by J. S. Carmany.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington Co., Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was so much pleased with the prompt cure it effected that he wrote the manufacturers a letter in praise for their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This remedy is for sale by J. S. Carmany, Florin, Pa.

The Hold-Up Man.
 The up-to-date Bill Sikes shocks his victims into submission by an electric current.

The old-fashioned jimmy may do for the burglar who operates in remote country districts. The up-to-date Bill Sikes has moved with the times, and in order to relieve his neighbors of their goods he uses his brains as well as brute strength. What may be called the electric confidence trick, as recently practiced in the streets of Madrid, shows that its inventor is a man of genius as well as a criminal.

This thief, who has just been arrested, was distinguished above others of his profession by the perfection of his garments and appearance. In a pocket of his elegantly fitting coat was concealed the secret of his success. It was a powerful little electric battery, joined by wires to a metallic plate, which he held in the palm of his right hand. Approaching his intended victim with outstretched hand he would greet him with the fervor of an old friend. Woe betide the unlucky man if he accepted the proffered hand.

More each year Americans mark the attractions of our country and as they grow to realize the charm of life among the Colorado mountains or in the Yellowstone park the tendency is toward greater travel west instead of east for health and recreation. The railroads, too, are alive to the new conditions and have made lower tourist rates this year than ever before. And then the train time has been vastly improved, so that now it takes only one night on the road between the Atlantic coast and Denver, that is, by using the Burlington's fast train from Chicago.

Taking Advantage.
 The czar of Russia has named his infant daughter Anastasia. That's a mean way of getting even with her, says the Denver Post, for not being a boy.

Does Quite a Profitable Business in Disposing of Kittens of the Omelet Cat.
 Evidences of prosperity exhibited by one of the colored employes of the white house, best known as George, have made him the envy of his associates. He recently appeared in a new suit of "store clothes."

When they saw him bring a little kitten into the white house the other day, says a correspondent of the Toledo Blade, and subsequently hand the little pet over to a fashionably attired lady who was riding in a trap the secret came out.
 Not long since the official white house cat gave birth to 12 kittens—an even dozen and no more. The old cat and her family were in George's keeping. When the event became known in official and social circles there was a great demand for kittens born beneath the roof of the executive mansion.

Learning that George was their keeper, society girls sought him out and each wanted the prettiest one in the lot. Each was promised the "prettiest" one. When a dozen customers were supplied the demand was as never before.
 Of the kittens had brought $100 dollars each, George was retiring from the lot among his friends and disinterestedly were justly rewarded.
