Young Brothers this week purchased a machine with which they can attach any kind of rubber tires. Here is the place to have them put on and save the middle man's profit.

Fell From a Scaffold.

Christian Metzler, residing three miles north of Mount Joy, met with a serious accident on Tuesday which may yet prove fatal. He was engaged at housing tobacco and fell from the top of the shed landing on one of the rails of the lower tier on his neck. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and bled profusely. A physician was immediately summoned and gave medical aid.

Brigade of Boys.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Christian Gerber jr. at Mount Joy on Wednesday.

A baby boy made its arrival in the family of Abner Hershey near town on Wednesday evening.

Ed. Booth is the happiest father in the town since Tuesday. The occasion being the arrival of a stout baby boy. Ed. says he's a "whopper."

Kills 200 Ducks Every Day.

Over at Camp Hill, York county, a man by the name of Stauffer runs a duck farm, and if you want to see a sight that equals anything at the Pan American Exposition, go over to see it. An average of two hundred are killed every day and shipped to city markets. As many as this are added daily through the medium of large incubators.

Died at Marietta.

At four o'clock on Sunday afternoon Donald Lloyd Plowman, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert R. Plowman, died of internal spasms. Just a week ago, a girl who was carrying the child tripped and fell down a flight of stairs, and he was injured internally, death coming to the child's relief at the hour above stated. Had he lived until the 17th inst. he would have been one year old. The remains were sent on the 10.30 train Monday morning to Marshalltown, Iowa, the home of the child's mother for interment.

Manheim Hotel Sold.

Martin Oechsle, owner and proprietor of the Prussian House in Manheim borough, has sold at private sale, to H. M. Frey proprietor of the Union Square hotel, in Rapho township, this well-known hostelry, the consideration being $4,450. Mr. Frey will take possession of the same in the spring, having recently sold his own hotel. Mr. Oechsle will continue to manage the Opera House, which he owns, and also engage largely in the manufacture of cigars.

Relics for a Museum.

George H. Danner, of Manheim, who has one of the largest and most valuable museums in the country, has just added two rare relics to his already large collection. One is a glass plate eight and one-half inches in diameter and two and a-half inches in depth, which was presented to him by Mrs. L. Ricksecker of Mount Joy. The glass was made in Baron Stiegel's glass works, Manheim, over 125 years ago.

Fell Off a Scaffold.

On Friday afternoon George Hall, the tenant farmer on one of the farms of the Duffy estate, fell from some scaffolding while engaged in putting away his tobacco crop and sustained serious injuries to his side. His condition is considered quite serious.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Charles W. Seavears and Annie M. Woods, both of Florin.

Honore O. Wells, of Chester county and Grace Hertzler, of Elizabethtown.

George A. Poff and Violet Pinkerton, both of Mount Joy borough.

Chicken and Waffle Supper.

The choir of St. Mary's Catholic church, of Lancaster, went to "Glen Orchard," the resort on the Susquehanna opposite Marietta, last Thursday and indulged in a chicken and waffle supper, served by Proprietor Flowers.

Trolley to Town.

A number of persons from Elizabethtown and vicinity have applied for a charter for a trolley line from Florin to Middletown. Work is expected to commence on the road next Spring.

Dwelling For Sale.

Clarence E. Hershey Agent, offers for sale in Mount Joy borough, a two story frame ten-room dwelling house with store and warerooms attached.

Glen Orchard.

A correspondent of the Middletown Press in a column article describing the beauties of Wild Cat Glen and surroundings, has the following concerning Councilman Flowers' resort:

Glen Orchard, the hotel at which we are stopping, is a new three story building, 24x60 feet, with mosquito and fly-proof sleeping apartments, spacious dancing hall, and wide double piazza, and all modern improvements. A new gas engine was placed in position on Wednesday, which is used to pump up water into the building. This hotel is owned by A. S. Flowers of Mount Joy, Pa. Mr. Flowers also owns twelve acres of land, on which he has planted 1200 Paragon chestnut trees; 150 walnut trees, and all kinds of fruit trees. The outlook for a large chestnut crop is very good, as the trees are heavily laden with burrs. Fishing is very good at this point, there being a stretch of about two miles of water 16 feet deep, which affords an excellent opportunity for the angler to display his skill at bass and salmon fishing.

Patent Granted.

Daniel H. Herr, Patent Attorney at Lancaster, on Wednesday received a United States patent issued to Elmer E. Brown and Geo. H. Brown, of Mount Joy, for improvements in a Witch Loom. The object of the invention is to provide means whereby the harness-moving mechanism is given a very slow motion while the loom is running at its regular or normal rate of speed, with positive pulls up and down on the harness frames at practically half the rate of speed of the harness-moving mechanism, now known to the trade, being adapted to light or heavy work and to any number of harnesses, yielding: First, less strain on the warp threads by reason of said slow motion; second, increased production of the loom with the same strain on the warp threads as under existing harness-moving mechanisms having up and down pulls; third, greatly reduced wear and tear to the working parts; and fourth, lessened liability to their getting out of order.

The Tobacco Crop.

The past week has been a busy one for the tobacco farmer. Wherever you go, you will find men busy at work cutting, spearing and housing Nicotiana Tobacum, as the botanists call the common tobacco stalk. "Warmed by the sun, and wet by the dew," the little stalks that were planted last spring have developed to immense proportions and the farmer who has a tobacco patch has indeed cause to be happy.

Buzzard's Intention.

Abe Buzzard says there is no truth in the report that he is going to be a campmeeting exhorter again and to travel in a star engagement at campmeetings. He has no objection to campmeetings, but wants to have a job where he can earn an honest living at honest toil. Abe believes he would be the happiest man in the world with a job at $1.75 or $2.00 a day. Abe is stout and well formed, above the medium in height, has a fair, clear skin and wears a black moustache. His eyes are dark and penetrating, and his acquaintances have confidence in him and will try to help him along.

Cassel Wins.

The Republican board of return judges of the county primary, held on August 17th, to nominate a candidate to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman Brosius, met Monday morning at Lancaster, to hear the report of the committee on contestants. By a vote of 75 to 14, the board adopted the majority report which recommended that the result as shown by the face of the returns should stand. This gives H. Bard Cassel a majority of 932 over Professor M. J. Frecht. A minority report was also presented alleging irregularities and fraud, but no action was taken on it.

TOLD OVER THE TEACUPS.

An Indian and a Russian woman are among the graduates of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania this year.

Every year shows an increase in the number of women who in traveling employ valets, instead of maids. The valet acts as courier and attends to the luggage.

The inauguration of the monument to Rosa Bonheur, which has not been, like most monuments, raised by subscription, but erected by a private individual, took place recently at Fontainebleau.

Turkish women, it is said, are becoming more independent every year. Despite of orders to cover the face in public, many boldly let their veils fall aside and keep them off altogether when entering a shop.

There are hundreds of women connected with the newspapers of the land as literary, dramatic and art critics, society and general reporters, but the honor of being the only woman city editor is said to belong to Mary M. Lee, of the Titusville (Pa.) Herald.

Miss Rebecca Page Knox, daughter of the United States attorney general, is a pretty brunette of 20, and is described by her father as a "level-headed girl." Miss Knox has spent much of her time in study and travel. She is the constant companion of her father in their home life and they are spoken of as comrades.

The advent of two Moorish women from the grand vizier's harem, who have accompanied the deputation from the sultan of Morocco to King Edward, is quite a matter of moment. We know little of our sisters in Morocco, for the Moor, as in the olden days, still jealously guards his women relations from contact with the outside world.

Mrs. Louis Botha, wife of the Boer commandant, vindicates women against the aspersion that they cannot keep a secret. The most experienced diplomatist was never more discreet than this lady. During her stay in London she has been besought by interviewers and bombarded with letters. But not a soul has the least idea of what is passing through her mind. And she has enjoyed shopping in Regent street as if she had not a care in the world.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The German army includes more than 10,000 musicians.

Bees suck over 3,000,000 flowers to gather one pound of honey.

Twenty-eight different kinds of food are needed to feed the animals in the Berlin zoo.

The average distance traveled by British locomotive engine drivers is from 30,000 to 50,000 miles every year. There are about 20,000 drivers in the United Kingdom.

Emperor William has ordered all German officers on leave in France, in places where there is no garrison, to report their arrival to the local civil authorities within the first 24 hours.

With a view of preventing dust from accumulating on the line and blowing into the carriages, the whole of the London & Northwestern main line from London to Carlisle is now ballasted with clean granite chippings in place of cinders.

The pig, as is well known, will destroy and eat rattlesnakes with impunity. It is said that the poison is not sufficiently introduced into the circulation to cause death owing to the thick, adipose layer with which the domesticated pig is covered.

At the Brooklyn navy yard work has begun on two novel targets which are shortly to be used in testing the new Gathman gun. Each target will represent a broadside section of the battleship Iowa, and will have the same resisting power as the armor of that vessel. They are to cost $40,000.

A Queer Woman.

Judge (in full case)—Did Mrs. Bolton ever show signs of insanity in your presence?

Fair Witness—She was often very eccentric.

"Mention an instance."

"On one occasion we came from Europe in the same steamer, and she paid duty on her new furs instead of wearing them."

"When was that?"

"Last August."—N. Y. Weekly.

No Comparison.

Mr. Ferguson was later than usual in coming home, and as his wife met him in the hallway with her usual kiss he said apologetically:

"The train was crowded, Laura, and I had to ride in the smoking car. I suppose I smell like a tobacco factory."

"No, George," said Mrs. Ferguson, "you do not. The smell from a tobacco factory, as I remember it, is not at all offensive."—Chicago Tribune.

The Fee Was Tempting.

A very young couple in southwest Georgia called on a colored minister and offered him a string of fish to marry them. Said the minister:

"I might be positive that both of you are too young to marry; but den—you looks a heap older dan what you is; en fudermo', ef dey is one ting I wants pertickler fer dinner dis day, it is fish. So, jine han's!"—Atlanta Constitution.

John F. Pyle, of this place, recently received a ground hog from his son, Philip S. Pyle, at Uniontown. Mr. Pyle is the animal caged and it daily receives the attention of the family to be making quite a pet of the queer creature. Its daily diet is buttered bread and clover.

Charles Gland, grandson of John W. Roland, whose home is in Philadelphia, had the misfortune to have his arm broken while tussling with some boys at the Ontal Troubadours entertainment. He recently had the splints removed from the same arm, which has been seriously broken.

Diphtheria is reported to be in this place. The disease is reported by Wesley Donegal street, and the health and the house was quarantined to prevent the disease.

ANOTHER RAIL.

James Barrett struck by a freight train of Marietta and instantly killed.

On Saturday evening train No. 60 due here at 5.53, struck and instantly killed James Barrett at the lime kilns, a few miles west of Marietta. Barrett was a young colored man about nineteen years of age, and had only removed from his home at Louisa County, Va., about two weeks ago. He worked in the quarries of the Wrightville Lime Company, his father having been employed there for more than a year. The unfortunate young man had waited for a west-bound freight freight train to pass and when it had done so stepped forward and was struck by the rapidly moving passenger train. The entire crown of his head was cut or knocked off and his brains battered over the tracks. The engine did not pass over him, and from blood on the step it is supposed that he was struck by the step of the baggage car. Strange to say his body was not in the least mutilated.

Deputy Coroner S. S. Steffy, of Bainbridge, was notified and held an inquest, the jury rendering a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Undertakers S. F. Frey & Son took charge of the remains and brought them to Marietta on Saturday night. They were prepared for burial and shipped for interment on Sunday morning.
