SERENADING LADY LOVE. (An Every-Day Sce the Cities of the Philipp

bank account. They never think of inviting him in to see their daughter until these facts are ascentained without a shadow of doubt.

"His standing having been ascertained, the bulldogs are tied up and the wardens sheath their swords. The coast is clear now, and the lover may fetch out his mandolin or guitar and send sweet melody along with the moonlight into the bed chamber of his sweetheart. At the end of the year or 12 months if he still remains faithful and refrains from prosecuting his suit with undue haste, he may approach the girl's parents and plead for a personal audience with her. This is getting to close quarters, and a favorable answer means that the girl has made the same plea to her parents. The young people are permitted to meet in the parlor, but not alone. The parent or guardian is always on hand to see that the proprieties are thoroughly respecied, and this sort of vigilance is never relaxed until they have plighted their troth. The lover cannot take his mistress to church, theater or even to the refined, elevating Spanish sport known as a bullfight, until his matrimonial intentions are spiked down and welded.

"A person would think the rigorous custom would deter aspirants, but it doesn't. They accept the conditions eagerly and face them like martyrs. "The funeral customs-to make a sudden change of the subject-of the wealthy of Manila differ almost as greatly from ours as do their courtships. If enough money is furnished, the padre will see that the obsequies go off about right. He is the great an of the occasion.
